AROCK STOCKMAN TURNS CATTLE ON RANGE; HAY SHORT

Arock—On account of shortage of hay, John G. Taylor, Winnemucca cattleman who has been wintering large herds at Arock in the Jordan Valley country, will turn his strongest cattle on the open range this week. He has been hauling baled hay and cottonseed cake from valley towns for several weeks. He believes that his stronger stock will survive on the range until the early grasses come.

Other stockmen are getting short of hay in Jordan Valley. If the weather moderates, range conditions will be excellent as there has been an abundance of snow this winter.

The most successful dance of the season was a Leap Year dance given Saturday week in the grange hall by the ladies of the Home Economics club. The hostesses wore colonial costumes. The grand march was led by the chairman of the club and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wright. Old time music was furnished by W. S. Bruce and Mrs. C. E. Lanning. A hundred people attended. Refreshments were served at midnight.

Arthur Beam and wife motored to Westfall Friday and visited the Earl Ripley at the Dick Scott ranch. Vivian Van Cleave accompanied them and visited her husband who is working at the Lamberson ranch.

TWO STATES PLAN HORSE ROUND-UP AGAIN THIS YEAR

Idaho and Oregon have agreed on another wild horse round-up this spring and summer, according to Dr. W. T. White, director of the Idaho bureau of animal husbandry. Boise. Large bands of wild horses in Jordan Valley and Idaho desert country were tested last summer for disease and it will be necessary to determine whether it was stamped out.

The horses were shipped by the carloads the past two summers to canning factories, where the animals were converted into chicken feed. Better meat was shipped abroad for human use.

We're talking pretty "sure of ourselves" . . . but you'd be the same if you had a stock of $5 hats that was head and shoulders over any other stock in Malheur county.

And if every man who tried on your $5 shape thought it was a $7 hat he was looking at . . .

And if every buyer immediately started to be a seller to his friends
