

Easter Events Follow Party Of St. Patrick

St. Patrick suggestions were carried out in attractive detail at a bridge luncheon given Thursday by Mrs. Ed. Wilson, Mrs. Farnham Sills and Mrs. F. P. Greene at the home of the latter. A three-course luncheon was served, twenty-four guests attending. Mrs. Arthur H. Boydell won first prize, Mrs. Barney Wilson, second; Mrs. W. W. Strane, consolation; Mrs. Bernard Frost, all cut. Other special favors went to Mrs. Artie Robertson, Mrs. E. J. Powell, Mrs. M. M. Greeling, Mrs. Ernest C. Wilson and Mrs. C. L. McCoy.

STUDY CLUB LUNCHEON

Luncheon tables looked like spring gardens, with daffodils and sweet peas in pastel shades in evidence, when Mrs. O. G. Boden entertained members and guests of the Nyssa Study club at her home Friday. After an enjoyable two-course luncheon, everyone took part in a varied study program. Mrs. Merritt M. Greeling was leader. Mrs. Betty LaFrenz will entertain next month with Mrs. C. C. Hunt, leader.

SMITHS ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Smith were hosts at a party last Friday night, entertaining guests for five tables of bridge. Prizes were awarded: Mrs. W. F. McLing, first; Mrs. F. B. Schlopko, second; Farnham Sills, first; Bernard Frost, second; and Mrs. Arthur H. Boydell, consolation. After bridge, a pretty St. Patrick's supper was served in two courses. Miss Deana Smith, daughter of the hosts, assisted.

MR. AND MRS. CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Hall were hosts for the Mr. and Mrs. Bridge club Tuesday night, entertaining members and guests for three tables of cards. C. L. McCoy won first prize, Farnham Sills, second. The hosts served a delicious Easter lunch at the close.

BRIDE HONORED

Mrs. Felton Duncan entertained a number of neighborhood friends Wednesday afternoon at a gift shower complimentary to Mrs. Glenn Points, March bride. Refreshments were served at the close of a social afternoon. Mrs. Points received a variety of useful gifts.

MONDAY CLUB

Monday Bridge club met with Mrs. Howard Larsen this week, with all members present. After a 1:30 o'clock luncheon, reminiscent of Easter, cards provided diversion. Mrs. Ed. Wilson won high score prize, Mrs. F. B. Schlopko, low.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

For the first time, Alfred Blokland celebrated his birthday without his twin on Friday night. He was not alone, however, as about 25 young friends celebrated the event with him at a party at the parsonage. After jolly games, a lunch was served.
