FARMERS USE LOANS TO PAY

GOVERNMENT EXTENDS TIME LIMIT IN WHICH TO MAKE AP-PLICATION TO APRIL 15; SMALL LOANS SOUGHT IN MALHEUR COUNTY.

Malheur county farmers, and others of the country, who obtain crop loans from the government under the Reconstruction Finance corporation bill may apply part of their crop loans to the payment of irrigation water charges, the secretary of agriculture ruled Friday. They may use the money for water charges regardless of whether SCHOOLS FAVOR they are under government or private irrigation projects.

Small Loans Sought Loans by the department will not exceed $400 per farmer, at 51/2 per cent, on the crop. A dozen or so applications SIX SCHOOLS READY FOR BASEfor the government loans have been received by the Malheur county committee consisting of Joe F. Dyer and D. C. Deming of Vale, Pieter Tensen of Nyssa and County Agent R. G. Larson, secretary. The committee reported to The Journal that a surprising feature of the applications is the request for small amounts.
