You Can Make MONEY On Poultry

The largest and most successful poultry farms in the United States feed PURINA CHOWS.

HERE'S WHY—

CHICKS fed Purina Startena show XTRA GROWTH.

PULLETS fed Purina Growena show XTRA DEVELOPMENT.

HENS fed Purina Laying Chows produce XTRA EGGS.

Accurate records on over a million chicks, pullets and hens prove this. Why not follow the Purina plan for one year and prove it to yourself.

Junior-Senior Banquet Was Nice Affair

Panels of lattice work inclosed the banquet room at the Nyssa gymnasium Saturday night for the foremost social event of the high school year, the Junior-Senior banquet. Potted plants and pussywillows were grouped in each corner of the inclosure. Hostesses for the occasion were old-fashioned dolls, in lifelike size, that formed a part of the color scheme in pink and green. Snapdragons and tapers decorated the banquet tables. It was all very pretty.

School girls were becoming new frocks. Guests were juniors and seniors, the school faculty and school directors A. H. Boydell and S. D. Goshert and their wives.

Dwight Johnston presided as toastmaster. Carlotta Irwin gave the address of welcome, with James McGinnis, responding. Paul Hatch sang two solos. There was a Dutch dance by Charlene Crawford and Evalyn Earp; a trio by Margaret Pinkerton, Bertha Wimp and Dorothy Austin.

Sophomores were hosts at a dance after the banquet for the entire student body. Banquet committees follow: decorations—Sue Keizer, Charlene Crawford, Bertha Wimp, Carlotta Irwin, Margaret Pinkerton; program—Lois Schweizer, Max Schweizer, Evalyn Earp, Miss Clarice Johnson, junior class advisor, was director.

AID DINNER SUCCESS

Over a hundred patrons were served at the Easter dinner given by the ladies' aid of the Methodist community church last Thursday. Proceeds swelled the treasury by a neat sum, it is reported, and The Journal has been asked to extend the thanks of the aid to the public. All members of the aid, with Mrs. Donald M. Graham, president, in charge, assisted in giving the dinner. At the April 14, meeting the aid will close a money-making contest.

TUESDAY BRIDGE

Mrs. J. J. Sarazin was hostess for Tuesday evening bridge club this week. Mrs. Ernest C. Wilson and Mrs. J. Boydell won favors. Mrs. Boydell and daughter Eva, Mrs. Dick Tensen and Mrs. Dean Smith were invited guests.

ONTARIO MISS HONORED

Mrs. Steve Regan entertained Tuesday in Ontario in honor of Miss Claire Ryan, whose marriage to Lewis P. Ackerman of Vale will be an event in the near future. Mrs. C. L. McCoy of Nyssa was among the guests. The honoree received a gift shower. Mrs. McCoy remained in Ontario to have dinner Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ryan and their daughter Claire.

VALE REBEKAHS HERE

The Rebekahs of Yellow Rose lodge, Nyssa, were hosts for a delegation of ten Rebekahs from Vale at an enjoyable meeting last Thursday night. A pleasing feature of the evening was a patriotic drill by Nyssa Rebekahs, with J. R. Hunter, captain. The drill had been prepared for the recent loop meeting of Rebekahs and Odd Fellows and was repeated Thursday night. Mrs. Nellie Carroll of Vale gave two readings. Mrs. C'Neal Boswell of Vale displayed a beautiful rose wreath quilt which will be sold by the Vale lodge. John H. Forbes made a brief talk. At the close a lunch, reminding of Easter, was served.

W. C. T. U.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Wesley J. Browne next Tuesday afternoon.

Paint your screens for nothing... when you paint your house

COLOR and thrift go hand in hand this Spring. Give your house a new dress in the gay colors of B-H Mixed Paint—Del Monte Gray—Cascade Green—or more conventional Colonial Yellow or Ivory. The cost will be less than at any time in ten years!

The best appearing job, of course, includes re-painted screens. Use B-H Screen Enamel and have it cost you nothing! Two paint jobs for price of one!

Like all National Lead products, these two paints are of the highest quality, go farther and last longer.

About color-schemes, write National Lead Home Beautiful Dept., 2240—24th Street, San Francisco. See us about paints.
