THE COUNTY WILD LIFE LEAGUE

Wild life has an appeal. There is scarcely a man, or woman or child who will not pause to watch a covey of twittering birds dip themselves into a tiny stream for the daily batch. They will listen to the cheerful notes of the bob white. They will pause to watch the ants as they go about their life work of hoarding for tomorrow.

The other day a boy came down the street with a string of catfish. He was not on his way home. He loitered here and there to give everyone an opportunity to look over the fine catch. The boy was as proud as the Prince of Wales on his polo pony.

One fellow likes to fish, another likes to hunt, another likes the sunny out-of-doors. They all are friends of wild life, whether they realize it or not. Why not be friends together? That is the purpose of the Malheur Wild Life League, recently organized, for which a drive for members is now being made in Nyssa, Ontario and Vale. Over in Ontario, Jim Davenport is urging fathers to buy a 50-cent membership for their sons. What boy wouldn't be proud of that. Such fathers are accomplishing a twofold victory.

Aden Wilson and Artie Robertson are Nyssa directors in the league. Another reason why Nyssa sportsmen in particular should give the league their support and friendship is the project for development of Owyhee reservoir as a game resort. Dues is but 50 cents a year. Sign on the dotted line and put the Nyssa membership drive over the top.

Nyssa and adjacent country is blessed with an underground supply of pure soft water. Wells are drilled to tap this never-failing supply.

See Nyssa and see a country with a future in business, farming, fruit growing and stock raising.

Manufacturing enterprises are needed, such as creamery, cheese factory, cannery, pickle works, wool scouring plant as well as any industry using the raw products of the farm and range.

Owyhee project dam as of January 1, 1932, 91 per cent complete, Nyssa, Oregon.

The above write-up for Nyssa, the Gate City, occupies a page in the 1932 Oregon Trail Tourist Guide and is accompanied by a view of Owyhee Dam. We find the write-up cites many natural advantages which will be factors in the promotion of future growth if we capitalize upon our resources. If we nap, opportunity might pass by.

COMMENTS BY CLARK WOOD

No doubt could exist that there are two sides to the liquor question, but will there ever be an end?

The pronounced advantage of the sales tax is now more apparent. There won't be any.

About the only difference between a Republican and Democrat is that one isn't a superman and neither is the other.
