Mrs. Eulah Kelly has returned from a trip to Portland, Denver and other cities where she spent several weeks with friends.

Mrs. W. B. Allen left Friday for her home in Oia, Ia., after spending the last few weeks with her daughter Mrs. Wm. Tiller and the infant son Raymond Lyle.

James Langton has installed an electric ice box in his Cozy Cafe and is making arrangements to sell Sunshine Ice Cream, the product of the Farmers Cooperative Creamery.

Ben Faust, Unity rancher, entered the Ontario hospital last week for an operation on an arm fractured last August in a winnall. Faust has suffered much pain. He is the father of Ray Faust, who has been feeding stock near Nyssa during the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Black of Portland have rented the Albert Hinch ranch north of town.

John Lewellen was in from his Bonita ranch yesterday to see his new baby born recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Klinkenberg, parents of Mrs. Lewellen.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McCoy and son Robert were guests Sunday at the Marshall Spell home in Boise. McCoy tried his golf on a Boise course while in the capital city.

When Wilson Brothers, young sons of Ernest C. Wilson, and their dad go fishing, it's too bad for the fish. Sunday they caught over a hundred cat and whitefish on the Owyhee.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Francis are here from Depoe Bay to make spring improvements at their several residences in Nyssa. They are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles McConnell and their many other old friends here.

The city has begun street improvement by cutting out a high earth curb in front of The Journal office and Methodist church. The city plans to do some grading as soon as equipment can be secured.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Rudlich spent Monday in Boise. They are preparing to return to their remodeled home the coming week. Damage to roof and interior by the recent fire has been repaired.

Earl Johns, game warden on the Idaho side, liberated a coop of thirty fine large quail in Apple Valley last week. The birds are much larger than others liberated in the valley. They compare with the California quail, with beautiful topknots.

Mrs. P. M. Binkley returned Monday from Satsop, Wash., where she visited her daughter and family for over a week. In Portland Mrs. Binkley stopped to see her granddaughter Ina Smith, a student nurse at the Portland sanitarium. Miss Smith formerly attended school in Nyssa.

Supt. Leo D. Hollenberg, Coach John Young and Miss Stella Fishburn attended a teachers' meeting in La Grande Saturday. Mrs. Hollenberg accompanied them to spend the day in Baker. Miss Inez Johnson another member of the party, spent the week end at her home in North Powder.

M. N. Doolittle of Vale and daughter Miss Verdi of Boise were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Barr Doolittle at dinner Sunday. The party went to Owyhee Dam to view the flood waters which were still flowing at high speed through the diversion tunnel. Water had flooded the road near the dam and they were obliged to walk a distance.

Miss Agnes Swan was home from Links Business college over Sunday.

Supt. Leo D. Hollenberg left Tuesday for Spokane to attend a conference of teachers from four states.

Mrs. John Pieger, of the Apple Valley section, was afflicted by an attack of appendicitis Monday. She was rushed to the Ontario hospital by Dr. J. J. Sarazin for an emergency operation. Mrs. Pieger is reported doing nicely.

"I can't do without my Journal, so change my address from Rt. 1 Nyssa to Rt. 1 Ontario," said C. P. Overstreet when in town Saturday from his new home. Mr. Overstreet has rented the Wolfe and Quinley ranch for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Clarno and family moved to a small farm tract owned by Frank Clark in Apple Valley the last of the week. Their new home is about three miles from Nyssa. Mr. Clark went to Portland recently.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Fleming at the Ontario hospital Saturday night. He is a first child. The Flemings make their home with the Holaday families at the Eastern Oregon Land company ranch near town.

FIND SEA SHELLS IN WELL

Oyster shells and several varieties of sea shells were found in the gravel strata uncovered at the Dr. J. J. Sarazin residence Monday, when an employee was digging a well. It revives the theory that this area was covered by water in some forgotten age. Dr. Sarazin will use the new well for a low pressure system for irrigation.

Mrs. Emma Duncan and her daughter Mrs. R. F. Roberts and little son Robert, who are her from Twin Falls, went to the Felton Duncan farm home Tuesday to spend the remainder of the week.
