HE TRIED HIS BEST, BUT---

He brushed his teeth twice a day,
Doctors examined him twice a year.
He wore his rubbers when it rained.
He slept with his windows open.
He never smoked or drank.
He kept that schoolgirl complexion.
He avoided athlete's foot and halitosis—
YET, the funeral will be held next Wednesday.
HE HAD BAD BRAKES AND COULDN'T STOP AT THE CROSSING.

Willoughby Weds Miss Trobaugh At Bend On Friday

WILLOUGHBY-TROBAUGH

Surprising friends, Miss Lavone Trobaugh and Roy Willoughby well known young business man of Nyssa, were married in Bend Friday. They kept their departure and the event secret until after the wedding in Bend, when they telephoned the news to friends here. They were bound for Oceanside and Salem, where Mr. Willoughby has business interests. The bride is from Nampa but has lived in Nyssa the past year where she has been cosmetician in the Owyhee Beauty shop. Mr. Willoughby engages in the real estate business.

SHOWER FOR PASTOR

About 60 ladies attended the bridal shower for Rev. Josie J. Blokland Friday at the home of Mrs. C. A. Abbott, with ladies of the church and community as hostesses. Tables and chairs were arranged on the lawn. Even the express wagon, drawn by little Martha Browne and Dickie Tensen, was gaily decorated in the color scheme of yellow and white. They brought gifts, lovely and useful, which delighted Miss Blokland. Refreshments closed a happy afternoon.

BIRTHDAY LUNCHEON

Mrs. Abbott entertained a few friends at a luncheon Friday in honor of the birthday of her mother Mrs. Arvilla Fauchier. Guests were Mrs. A. Brown of Payette, Mrs. Mattie Thomason, Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor and Mrs. Dendil Wilson of Arcadia. Mrs. Brown remained to spend several days with Mrs. Fauchier.

GIRL SCOUT PICNIC

Vacation time brings swimming, sports and picnics for the active Girl Scouts troop of Nyssa. Monday they picnicked at the country home of Miss Margaret Hunt, who will have charge of the troop in June. Next Monday the girls meet at the Robert Martin home for swimming instructions. After dry-land tests, they will strive for the Red Cross life saving certificate.

Miss Betty Tensen and Miss Katherine Leuck, graduate girl scouts along with Miss Hunt, will take charge of the Nyssa troop in July and August.

MRS. SCHWEIZER ENTERTAINS
