

College Girls, Once 4H Club, Will Entertain

Mrs. Conrad Martin and Mrs. Ted Simmons entertained the Kingman Kolony Parent-Teacher association at the schoolhouse last Friday afternoon with a social session. Arrangements were completed for sending two 4-H club members, Ella Points and Arnold Slippy, to 4-H summer school at Corvallis the coming week. For years the association has sponsored club work. Former 4-H girls of the Kolony, who have returned from colleges and schools for the summer, will be invited to give the program at the next meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. Maurice L. Judd July 8. Jeanette Martin, Lewiston Normal; Agnes Nichols, Reed College; Pearl Williams, Uath State; and Eulalia Shaffer, teacher at Pocatello this year, will entertain.

HOUSEWARMING

School friends and others of the community gave a surprise housewarming for Mrs. Bunny Schweizer, Thursday afternoon at her new home in the Wilson apartments. Her friends brought useful and welcome gifts for a miscellaneous shower. Closing the afternoon they served a plate luncheon.

MRS. HAWORTH ENTERTAINS

Mrs. R. L. Haworth gave a delightful shower at her home in Big Bend Friday in honor of Mrs. James McGinnis (Pauline Hatch), whose marriage was recently announced. The honoree received gifts from 53 friends. A covered dish lunch was served. Miss Donna Cook attended from Nyssa.

PARTY AT SLIPPY HOME

A crowd gathered at the H. B. Slippy home near town Sunday to attend a birthday luncheon in honor of Mr. Slippy and Miss Virginia Mae Jarvis. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McGinnis, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McGinnis, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Jarvis, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Linville, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. McGinnis, Mr. and Mrs. Donald McGinnis, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McGinnis, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Connaughy, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin McGinnis and Mr. and Mrs. James W. McGinnis.

PEANUT PARTY

The Young People's class of Oregon Trail Sunday School gave a novel Peanut party last Friday night for the Oregon Trail community. They arranged the stage to represent an outdoor scene with trees and shrubbery for a background. Hubert Jones lead group singing. Austin McNall gave an accordion selection. June Holady and Hubert Jones, solos; Frances Davis and Dean Johnston, harmonica selections, while others of the class gave readings and told humorous stories. Peanut contests and a peanut lunch followed.

MRS. COOK ENTERTAINS

Mrs. A. V. Cook and Mrs. J. Boydell were joint hostesses Monday evening, entertaining with a social meeting for the Legion Auxiliary at the Cook home. It was reported that the poppy sale under the supervision of Mrs. Ralph Cooper went over the top.

ROCKVILLE MAN DIES IN BOISE

John Leake aged 73 years, resident of Rockville, Malheur county, for the past 18 years, died Tuesday morning at a Boise hospital after a lingering illness. Surviving are two sons Leo J. of Council, Ida., and Wm. Leake of Rockville, three daughters Mrs. Frank Catterson and Mrs. Ray Catterson of Lawen, Or., and Miss Bertha Leake of Steelmonte, Alaska.

PEAS ASSURE BIG PAYROLL IN APPLE VALLEY

Apple Valley—Workers began picking peas Monday at the E. G. Johnson field of the San Diego Produce company and at other fields in the valley. They found that the pods were not properly filled, on account of cool weather, so postponed picking until the end of this week. It is said the pea harvest will make a payroll of $15,000 a week in the Nyssa-Parma section.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Van Landingham and son Ivan and daughter Lois moved to Homedale last week. Mr. Van Landingham will operate the dredge there.

Mrs. Donald Tolmie, Sr., of Blackfoot, arrived Thursday evening for a visit with her sons Norman and Donald. She had dinner Friday at the Clenden-ing home.

Jim and Bernard Warnjes arrived home Friday from California.

Mrs. Ralph Castatar and children were dinner guests Sunday at the Norman Tolmie home.

Mrs. Gus Barth of Boise was a guest last week of Mrs. Geo. Dailey. They spent Wednesday with Mrs. Geo. Menzies.

Mrs. E. Peterson, Mrs. Gus Barth of Boise, Mrs. Ed. Copeland and Mrs. Geo. Dailey inspected the Barrett rock garden near Nyssa Friday.

Mrs. Norman Tolmie attended the garden tea of Mrs. Fred Juries and Mrs. Fred Wamsley in Parma last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Boston were here from Swan Falls when on a trip to Baker last week.

Art Johnson went to New Meadows to work in the peas.

Ladies aid met at the Clem home last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Wilkerson have moved to Notus.

Mrs. W. C. Crosswhite of Caldwell has been visiting her daughter Mrs. John Wilson.

Miss Lucile Stephens is home from Hood River where she taught school last term.

Fred Fisher and family attended the funeral services for his father Wm. Dubarko at New Plymouth last Tuesday. The Meiers also attended.

Alene McPadden is making a vacation visit with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Adams.

BILL WAIVES MINE ASSESSMENT WORK

President Hoover Monday signed the bill waiving requirements of assessment work on mining claims for the year ending June 30, 1932. This will protect claims on which no work has been done the past year.

MISS BRADLEY GIVES SHOWER FOR OWYHEE GIRL

Owyhee—Miss Alta Bradley was hostess at a shower for Mrs. Jay Duncan, formerly Miss Evelyn DeBord of Payette, on Wednesday afternoon. Old friends of the bride were guests. Little Dela Kygar was obliged to reload her express wagon with the many beautiful and useful gifts presented. Two miniature dolls dressed as bride and groom formed a centerpiece. Delicious refreshments closed a pleasant afternoon.

Daily vacation bible school closed Friday with a program given by the children in the evening. Thirty-four children were enrolled. Twenty-six certificates were presented by Rev. Peterson of Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pratt and two children and Mesdames Oiler and McIntire of Lewiston, were overnight guests of the Chas. Bradley family Saturday.

A radio has recently been installed in the Wm. Strode home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Dnean of Payette, Rev. Peterson of Caldwell and Fred Klingback visited the tunnels Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Peutz and son William and Mrs. John Hite were business visitors in Nampa Saturday.

Mrs. Wm. Strode entertained her parents Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hill and her brother Douglass Scott of Payette Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Slippy entertained at a birthday dinner for friends and relatives Sunday.

IRONSIDE RANCHER IMPROVES FROM SPOTTED FEVER

Ironside—Coy Wise, Ironside rancher, seems to be improving from spotted fever Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wise of Silver City and Fahy Tague of Hereford came to see him. J. N. Woodcock and wife and Carl Wood family of Baker visited him Saturday.

Miss Opal Ivers, Ironside teacher will spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. J. Montgomery in Riggins, Ida.

Mr. and Mrs. Walt Cozens were here from Bridgeport Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Beam of Westfall are spending the week at the parental E. J. Beam home. Mrs. H. Van Cleave was here Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Nichols spent part of last week with Mrs. Nichols mother at Payette.

Lloyd Judy and wife of Baker have moved to the W. R. Lofton ranch where Judy will be ranch foreman.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Long were hosts at Sunday dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Felton Duncan and Misses Iola and Velma Mull of Arcadia.

Mrs. Cora Newton took Mrs. Ruth Brooks and children to Starkey Hot Springs for an outing over the week end. They returned Tuesday.

Plumbing Fixtures

—to harmonize with your color scheme.
—installed to give you lasting service.

PHONE 109J2

GEORGE J. KINZER, Plumber

Ice Today ??

THINGS ARE WARMIN' UP A BIT. Better watch your foodstuffs. On ICE is where they belong, both to keep them fresh and protect your family's health.

To be sure your refrigerator is kept filled daily: PHONE 6.

Our driver will deliver it.

NYSSA PACKING CO.

Quality Meat Makes the Meal

PHONE 6

NYSSA, OR.

REACHES "ALL EYES"

YOU MAY HAVE A CAR YOU'D LIKE TO SELL. Or, it may be a house . . . or furniture . . . or machinery or any of innumerable other possessions. It may be of no use to you, but some one else may need it.

Advertise The Journal Want-Ad Column way. One-cent per word per issue.

You'd be surprised if you knew how well The Journal serves. Everyone reads the Want-Ads. Your ads will reach a thousand eyes.

The Nyssa Journal

See Us For All Kinds of Printing
At Lowest Prices

PHONE 19

NYSSA, OREGON

YUM—YUM IT'S

SWAN BREAD

Baked in Nyssa. It's Better Than the Foreign Bread and may we remind our good friends that money spent in Nyssa builds Nyssa.

10 Per Cent Tax On Toiletries ?

Yes, the new excise tax goes into effect June 21. Save money by making your purchases before that date.

We feature the following lines of Toiletries—

Max Factor Society Make-Up

Armond, Three-Flowers

Vantine's La Beaute'

Nyssa Pharmacy

The Rexall Store

Nyssa

Oregon

STRANGE BUT TRUE (BY BEN H. SMITH)

A DUCK WITH CHICKEN FEET—
IT NEITHER SWIMS, CROWS, QUACKS NOR LAYS EGGS!

OWNED BY EVELYN
REESE, OMAHA, NEBR.

X-RAYS WERE SO NAMED
BECAUSE 'X' REPRESENTED
THE UNKNOWN.
SCIENCE LATER EXPLAINED
MUCH OF THEIR NATURE, BUT THE NAME HAS REMAINED.

FIELD SEEDS, GRASS OR GRAIN

We have a clean fresh stock of seeds of all kinds. We know what grows best in this community, we have been very careful in selecting this stock of seeds and you can depend upon them growing. The man with a crop is in a better position to feather his financial nest.

See us for the best seeds, and planting suggestions.

Nyssa Seed & Grain Co.

I. K. Newell Manager

Phone 26

Nyssa, Oregon