

Parma Ladies Attend Golf Luncheon Here

Seven lady golfers of the Nyssa-Parma club returned the favor of Parma ladies Monday by entertaining them at a golf-luncheon. After nine holes of play at the course in Apple Valley, a two-course luncheon was served in the beautiful yard of the Estes L. Morton home near town. Tables were arranged under the trees and ideal weather made the event a huge success.

Miss Martha Schlopko assisted with serving. Mrs. Merrit M. Greeling, Jr., and Mrs. Fred Johnston of Parma made the low scores with 60 each for nine holes. Mrs. Glenn Frizzell made 63. Guests from Parma were Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. Ray Wilson, Mrs. N. P. Minster, Mrs. Clarence Kenefiel, Mrs. R. H. Young, Mrs. T. Claire Baldrige, Mrs. F. Dahlstrom and Mrs. R. Waite could not attend.

CHARIVARI PASTORS

It isn't often that two pastors are married in Nyssa, so in celebration of the recent and happy event practically all of the members of the Epworth League and others of the community formed a crowd Saturday night to charivari Rev. Josie J. Bach (Blokland) and her pastor husband Rev. Walter D. Bach of the Sweet and Montour Methodist circuit. They had just returned from two weeks visit at Island City, Sweet and High Valley, Idaho. Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Bach served refreshments for the crowd.

Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Long of Arcadia entertained at dinner in honor of the couple. That evening, Rev. Bach left for Sweet where he will continue his work, while Rev. Mrs. Bach will remain here to complete the conference year.

FOUR BIRTHDAYS

When Mrs. Ed. Wilson entertained with a birdge luncheon for members of the Monday bridge club on Tuesday afternoon, she had a birthday surprise for several members whose birthdays occur within the week. Birthday favors, with a greeting card, were awaiting

Mrs. Howard Larsen, Mrs. Farnham Silts and Mrs. P. P. Greene, Mrs. Wilson also celebrated her birthday anniversary Tuesday. Luncheon was served at one large table, centered with roses. After five tables of bridge, favors were awarded Mrs. Guy Bailey and Mrs. W. F. McLaugh. Members favored the continuance of Monday bridge club parties throughout the summer.

DINNER FOR TOWNES

Complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Towne, who left Tuesday for Goldfield, Nev., where Mr. Towne has purchased an interest in gold claims, Mrs. Eddie Powell gave a dinner at her home Sunday for seventeen guests. Covers were arranged at four small tables. Out of town guests were Mrs. Mary Morris of Weiser, mother of Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Towne, Mr. and Mrs. Theo Moore and family of Ontario, Mrs. J. H. Hawkins and daughter Dorothy and Miss Lindquist came from Weiser for the afternoon.

GOVERNOR MEIER SAYS LICENSES DUE JUNE 30th

It's near time to buy the annual automobile license and Governor Meier has declared there will be no extension of time. Licenses must be secured by June 30. Secretary of State Hal Hoss stated that apparently many motorists have delayed making their application for licenses in the hope that Governor Meier would grant 30 days moratorium again this year. However, he has announced that no extension would be given. So far there has been little demand for new licenses. Only $129,000 was taken in by the registration bureau up to June 11, while $196,000 was received for new plates for the same period the year before.

Members of the auxiliary and ladies who are eligible to join are invited to attend a social meeting of the Nyssa Auxiliary next Monday night at the home of Mrs. F. P. Greene, when those present will decide whether or not to continue Auxiliary meetings through the summer. Mrs. Donald M. Graham will be joint hostess. Refreshments will be served.

LEAGUE PLANS SOCIAL TO PAY FOR LAKE OUTING

An ice cream social will be given by the Epworth League at the Methodist Church Saturday, June 18. Everybody invited. Proceeds from the social will be used to help defray expenses of a delegation from the league which will attend the annual summer institute at Wallowa lake in July.

DOWN ON THE FARM

(Contributed)
Down on the farm, 'bout half past 4,
I slip on my pants and sneak out of the door;
Out of the yard I run like the dickens,
To milk 10 cows and feed the chickens.
Clean out the barn, curry Nancy and Jiggs,
Separate the cream, and slop all the pigs.
Work two hours, then eat like a Turk.
And, by heck, I'm ready for a full day's work.
Then I grease the wagon and put on the rack,
Throw a jug of water in an old grain sack,
Hitch up the horses, hustle down the lane,
Must get the hay in, for it looks like rain.
Look over yonder! Sure as I'm born,
Cattle on the rampage and cows in the corn!
Start across the medder, run a mile or two,
Heaving like I'm wind-broke, get wet clean through.
Get back to the horses, then for recompense,
Nancy gets straddle the barbed-wire fence.
Joints all a-aching and muscles in a jerk,
I'm fit as a fiddle for a full day's work.
Work all Summer till winter is nigh,
Then figure up the books and heave a big sigh.
Worked all year, didn't make a thing;
Got less cash now than I had last Spring.
But they never farmed, so they can't tell.
When Spring rolls 'round I take another chance,
While the fringe grows longer on my old gray pants.
Give by s'penders a hitch, my belt
And, by heck, I'm ready for a full another jerk, year's work.

Mayor of Boise Will Speak At Big Bend Fourth

Big Bend—Thos. Welsh, chairman of the Park Board has secured Mayor Jas. Pope of Boise as speaker for the annual July 4th picnic at Big Bend Park. Mayor Pope needs no introduction to the people of this section. His address will be well worth hearing. The exercises will begin promptly at two o'clock.

Committees appointed by the directors of Big Bend Park met Monday evening at the hall to complete arrangements for the celebration.

Miss Frances Miller, county librarian, of Ontario, was a week end guest of Miss Rene Brumbach.

Almost everyone in Bend is busy haying. The crop is light owing to cold spring weather.

Mrs. C. E. Peck and Frances were among those who attended the miscellaneous shower for Mrs. Andy Hopkins, a recent bride at the Wheatley home in Roswell.

Mr. and Mrs. English of Roswell were guests in the Pollet home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Baldrige attended commencement exercises at College of Idaho last week. Their daughter was a graduate.

AUXILIARY PARTY

Members of the auxiliary and ladies who are eligible to join are invited to attend a social meeting of the Nyssa Auxiliary next Monday night at the home of Mrs. F. P. Greene, when those present will decide whether or not to continue Auxiliary meetings through the summer. Mrs. Donald M. Graham will be joint hostess. Refreshments will be served.

40 GIRL SCOUTS MAKE MERRY AT JOINT MEETING

Quite an army were the forty Girl Scouts of Nyssa and Kingman Kolony who gathered at the home of Miss Margaret Hunt, lieutenant, for a joint meeting and bird study Monday night. Miss Betty Tensen, also a lieutenant of the Nyssa troop, had just returned from Oregon State college and assisted Miss Hunt with the meeting.

On a tour of the Hunt orchard, Scouts took notes on all the birds they observed. Then Mrs. Oscar Boden gave an interesting lecture to aid the girls in earning the bird finder's badge. Mrs. Maurice Judd, leader of the Kolony troop, and Miss Pearl Williams lieutenant, were present. It was all very pleasant and at the close the Nyssa girls served punch.

AUGUST 25-27 ARE DATES OF MALHEUR FAIR

August 25, 26 and 27, have been selected as the dates for the annual Malheur county fair. "We have just received assurance of state funds for the agricultural program of the fair from Secretary of State Hal Hoss," announced Ora Clark, president of the fair board.

Upon this assurance, plans for the fair have begun. Work will start soon on the premium book so that exhibitors can plan early. Premiums will be the same as last year. Already inquiries are being made on the possibilities of showing livestock and indications are in favor of better farm exhibits as every year sees marked advancement in this phase.

O. D. Dearborn is fair board secretary.

DANDELION GREENS MAKE EXCELLENT SQUIRREL POISON

There is more than one way to kill a cat—or a squirrel. Victor Johnson, Lake county agent, has mixed up 48 pints of liquid strychnine to be mixed with dandelion greens and fed squirrels, which, for some reason, apparently do not take poisoned grain usually used for the purpose. Checks made on this method of poisoning by J. F. Branson of the U. S. Biological Survey and Mr. Johnson showed results to be excellent.

Farmers, now is the time to clean your seed.
