

MRS. McDONALD GIVES PROGRAM FOR APPLE VALLEY

Apple Valley—Mrs. Levi Stephens and Mrs. M. A. McDonald were delegates of Apple Valley ladies' aid at the convention in Ontario last Thursday.

Mrs. McDonald gave a fine paper on "How We Can Keep the Spirit of Christmas in the Ladies Aid." Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Rollo Rucker, Mrs. Ida McCullum and Mrs. J. A. Pettit attended from here.

Mrs. Sam Brown was the honoree at a pleasant birthday surprise at her home last Sunday, given by the J. I. Boston, Fred Miller and Jim Perkins families.

Mrs. Ray Dandorff's 4-H club met at the home of Mrs. Fred Osterkamp Thursday. Eight members enjoy the club sessions.

Miss Lucile Stephens, teacher of a class at daily vacation bible school in Nyssa, has been assisting with the program for the close of the school Wednesday night.

E. McCormick is substituting on mail route No. 2.

Mrs. M. Clendening and daughter Myra and Mrs. Donald Tolmie visited Mrs. A. Pennington in Caldwell Sunday.

Ivan Brown is home from Baker. Mrs. Geo. Bailey spent Sunday at the Erick Peterson home at Parma.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollo Rucker and sons visited Sunday in Caldwell. Their daughter Mamie returned home with them after a week's visit with her uncle Lanty Rucker.

Mr. and Mrs. Ura Robinson and daughter Star visited Lawrence McCurry last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Tolmie and John Tolmie were Sunday guests of Donald Tolmie in Parma.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Bruno, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Roak and family and Mrs. Florence Pruett and family of Boise were guests Sunday at the Lee Bruno home.

J. A. Pettit and Geo. Bailey went to Caldwell Sunday.

Apple Valley nine lost a close game to Roswell Sunday, 10 to 6.

YOUTH SUFFERS
SUNSTROKE ON IRONSIDE FARM

Ironside—Harold Houston of Caldwell, son of John P. Houston, formerly of Malheur county, suffered a sunstroke while haying at the Carroll Loocy ranch in Ironside last week. He was seriously ill for a time but seems to have recovered at this writing. He will be unable to resume work in the hayfield, however. The Houston family lived in Vale before moving to Caldwell where Mr. Houston is agent of the Federal Land Bank of Spokane.

Ironside people plan a happy Fourth either at the Vale celebration or at the Unity grange picnic on Camp Creek near the Lackey sawmill. Ironside ball team will play Unity at the latter event.

Mrs. Claud Derrick and son Mervin were in Ontario Friday.

Dr. Houser and wife of Haines spent the week end at the parental H. C. Elms home.

The Ironside ball team crossed bats with Brogan at Brogan Sunday. The score was 14 to 1 in favor of Brogan.

E. J. Beam and wife, Arthur Van Buren, wife and son were in valley towns Saturday.

Mrs. Ralph Beam of Unity and her sister Mrs. Holden of Baker and children visited at the E. J. Beam home Thursday.

BEAUTY SPECIALIST HERE

Nyssa women are more beautiful. This week many of them learned the proper use of powder, rouge and lipstick from the work of an artist in her line Miss Ann Ginter, with pleasing results. Demonstrating Cara Nome toiletries for the Nyssa Pharmacy, Miss Ginter gave facials at Marie's Beauty shop. Appointments may be made today as Miss Ginter will spend the remainder of the week here.

NEWCOMER FARMING HERE

Ray Franklin, newcomer from Fruitland, has taken over the farming of the J. B. Smith ranch in Oregon Trail for the remainder of the season. Mrs. Franklin and four children have moved here. Franklin succeeds Neil Dimmick, who recently moved to the Kias Stam farm home.

I LIKE FULLERGLO

It makes my home so CHEERFUL

Housewives everywhere are saying this after having the beautiful Fullerglo satin-like enamel finish applied to walls and woodwork of their homes. The soft pastel colors are truly delightful in any room.

And the Fullerglo finish is smooth and non-porous so that it is easily cleaned with the whisk of a damp cloth.

Ask to see our Fullerglo color scheme suggestions and charts.
