

TARZAN, APE MAN BRINGS ADVENTURE

The strange story of a white man who was brought up in the jungles and lived in the tree-tops like the apes is told in "Tarzan, the Ape Man," which will be seen at the Liberty theatre Sunday and Monday. This is a screen version of the famous adventure novel by Edgar Rice Burroughs and the fact that it was directed by W. S. Van Dyke of "Trader Horn" reputation guarantees it to contain the full flavor of the African jungle in which dangerous and always exciting locality the plot is unfolded.

Fights with lions, apes, blood-thirsty pygmies and other wild animals; a spectacular charge of a herd of elephants through native village; the imprisonment of an English sailor; the escape from a man-eating gorilla play a prominent part in this lively story of jungle adventures.

Cash Register Falls, Kills Roswell Child

Big Bend—The three-year-old son of Harvey Hunt, merchant at Roswell, was fatally injured Monday afternoon when struck by a heavy cash register as it toppled from a stand which the child had tripped. The boy lived only a short while. Grief-stricken friends and the Hunt family attended funeral services yesterday morning at the Memorial church in Roswell, with the Rev. Ostler in charge. Mr. Hunt had been rearranging his store and had temporarily placed the cash register on the stand.

A large crowd attended the Bicentennial program of Big Bend grange Tuesday night. The program follows: flag salute, Girl and Boy Scouts, Messrs. Stanley Mallett, David Gaffney, Messrs. Cox and Tyler; reading, Joe Brumbach; song, Virginia Miller, Evelyn Haworth, Ingrid Aho; paper on Washington's youth, Mrs. Karl Norvall, Vale; solo, Mr. Gaffney; talks by Master C. E. Peck and R. H. Young. Guests included Ex-Governor Baldrige, Mr. Young and Fred Wamsley, Parma, the Norvalls of Vale, P. F. Weikal, the Ammonds and Wares of Boulevard.

Mrs. Stam of Nyssa is visiting the J. Timmerman, Luit Stam and Muntje-werf families here.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hatch and her parents Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins of Roswell left Thursday for Portland.

Wade P. T. A. will meet with Mrs. F. A. Miller Friday.

Adrian nine was defeated by Notus Sunday.

Paul Hatch, Kenneth Parker, John Enos and Henry Sparks went to Whitman forest Thursday for an outing.

Miss Mary Samer returned to St. Vincent's hospital in Portland Monday.

R. S. Grant and C. E. Peck attended a meeting of the Parma commercial club Monday when fall festival plans were made.

The Haworths visited Mr. Haworth's parents Sunday, Eleanor and Phyllis remaining for a week.

The Nelson A. Miles post of Spanish-American war veterans and their families picnicked at the park Sunday, over 100 attending.

VALE-OWYHEE MEETING

I. B. D. Dodson, of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, will attend the dedication of Owyhee Dam. He will come to the county tomorrow to attend a special meeting of the land settlement association at Vale, when the advertising program for the year will be mapped out.

Rain yesterday marred a camping trip for the Camp Cookery 4-H club of the Kolony. However, they enjoyed a trip to Elk creek. Maurice Judd, leader, Russell McKennon, county club leader, and the following boys made the trip, Arnold Slippy, Leonard Nichols, Richard and William Holly, Clarence Enos, Joe Recla, Bob Winters and Gerald Slippy.
