

NOTICE OF CAUCUS

All citizens and voters of the Town of Nyssa are hereby notified that a meeting for the purpose of nominating candidates to be voted upon at the election to be held on November 8, 1932, for all the elective Town offices, will be held at the Council room on Tuesday, October 18, at 8 o'clock P. M. By order of the Town Council.

A. R. MILLAR, Recorder.

LITTLE NEWS OF NYSSA

Neal Logan spent the week end in Boise.
Leslie Sills left Monday for Burley, Idaho.
Mrs. C. C. Cotton was called to Nampa Friday by the illness of her daughter Mrs. Albert-Moore.
Wm. E. Holady took a truckload of No. 1 Nettle Gem potatoes to Baker Monday.
Dick Adams, Owyhee engineer, moved from camp to the Elliott residence in town this week. It has been nicely painted and improved for them.
Supt. Leo D. Hollenberg, Coach John Young and Owen Price took in the La Grande Normal-College of Idaho football game in Caldwell Friday night.
Mrs. Eddie Powell returned home Friday from Weiser where she spent the week with her mother Mrs. Mary Morris while Mr. Powell was on a hunting trip.
Rev. Floyd White attended a luncheon meeting of the Snake river valley ministerial association in Payette Monday. The temperance question was the topic of the study hour. Mrs. White and children accompanied the pastor to visit her mother Mrs. Jas. F. Fee who lives in Payette.

Mrs. C. L. McCoy visited her sister Mrs. Marshall Spell in Boise yesterday.
Fred Palmer of Caldwell was a visitor here Saturday and Sunday.
Rev. Floyd White and family were guests yesterday of the Edgar Kimball family in Weiser.
Frank D. Hall has completed the prune harvest season after filling an order for four carloads.
Joe Jay Smith and Harry Shelton are leaving for Nevada this week. They are interested in mining and plan to spend the next few weeks in Nevada.
John Magoffin and Raymond Davis, of Magoffin tunnel camp, returned last week from a deer hunt in the vicinity of Unity.
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Henry and Miss Maude Henry, Nampa justice of the peace called Sunday to see Mrs. Leon Higby. Mrs. Higby is slowly improving from a critical illness.
Frank T. Morgan is expected to return Sunday from Portland and bring Mrs. Morgan with him. She recently underwent a serious operation in Portland and is said to be improving. Friends are hopeful for her early recovery from an illness which has now spread over many months.

George Kinzer was here Monday after a successful deer hunt at Donnelly, Ida. with a party of friends. He bagged his buck and returned Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Schlapkohl, with Nate and Dick Young returned Sunday from Portland where they attended the Oregon-Washington game Saturday, which ended in a scoreless tie.
Bert Ray, father of Dewey Ray and Gordon Ray of Huntington is here from Vancouver Washington. He will spend the week here and next week accompany his son Gordon on a hunting trip.
Mrs. O. G. Neece of Santa Barbara, Cal. and her niece Mrs. Mary Davis of Riverside arrived last night to visit Mrs. I. T. Dale and the Thompson families here. They will go on to Jerome, Ida., to visit other relatives.
Mr. and Mrs. Dean Smith and daughter, Miss Betty Cook and Mrs. Lloyd Marshall motored to La Grande Sunday to spend the day with Miss Deana Smith, Donna Cook and Leonard Marshall, students at the Normal school.

After learning that Virgil Holady had enrolled at the Naval Training school in San Diego and hailed from Nyssa, Harry Leuck lost no time in making him a visit. He read The Journal news item and then made his call. Leuck is radio operator on the U. S. S. Langley.
Mrs. John Molenaar and two daughters were here Monday from their farm home near Ontario. They formerly lived in this community and were calling on a number of old friends. The Molenaars are among new subscribers to The Journal.
John Ernest returned home Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Glen Brown of Diamond, after a hunting trip in the Steens Mountain country. The Browns were guests at the Les Ernest home here until Tuesday when they left for Ontario to visit Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Bartlett.
Miss Bernice Vorhies is leaving today for Hometown where school begins Monday in a new building. The structure is about completed and is an attractive one-story brick building with ten rooms. Miss Vorhies will teach at Hometown during an eight-months term.

AUTUMN SPARES FLOWERS

tant cities all who hear of its beauty.
Jack Frost will visit the garden soon but when he does Mrs. Barrett will not grieve. She will begin fall work—changing the course of a stream, adding a new rock, building another grotto for shade-loving plants. Her work is never finished. When winter days are short and cold, she studies soils and plants indoors. She makes a few sales of plants for the purpose of adding the best of new flowers to her garden.
