OUR LIBRARY

At the beginning of this semester eighteen new fiction books were purchased for the school library. Since then the librarians, with Mary Munsterman, chief, have struggled bravely to please everyone. Now the question is, have the students cooperated? There are about ten students for each new book, to say nothing of the old volumes so we can all see that our library staff has a lot to do.

Let's do our part. Let's try to get our books back on time. In this way we can help the librarians keep the other students supplied with books. We can help to a greater extent by obeying library rules.

The library is a big asset to the school, operating for you and I. Let's not forget our responsibilities.—D. A.

JOKES

Byrd W.—You look sore, old egg. What's wrong?

Grower W.—I am sore. You know I was in the mile run. Well, when I got to the finish line some bum leaned out of the stand and yelled: "Step on it, buddy they want that way."

Mrs. Sarazin—Did your mother raise any poultry this year?

Harriet's Admirer—Well, she planted some, but the chickens scratched it out.

Earl Marshal—Rather striking, isn't she? Her father's a very wealthy pawnbroker.

Orville McEwen—She's certainly got redeeming features.

Sidney B.—I beg your pardon, Miss, but would you care to take a ride?

Lila H.—Sir! I'll have you know I'm a lady.

Sidney B.—I know that. If I wanted a man, I'd go home and get my father.

Ashes to ashes.
 Dust to dust.
 If the crooners don't sicken you,
 Sopranos must.
 Sopranos must.

Congress re-convened Monday and many members promise to clean up legislative muddles, but we think there's only one man who can really mop things up—the janitor.

Keith—You'd better keep your eyes open today.
 Arthur C.—Why?
 Keith—You'll look like a dern fool with them closed.

MR. AND MRS. THOS. B. REED
 "Sargon has brought health, strength and happiness to both my wife and me. I was so weak and did not get a good night's sleep for years. Many good things have happened since I have been using Sargon. I feel fine all the time."
 "Sargon helped my wife, who is the mother of 13 children, the same way. She has actually gained 15 pounds in weight and feels better and stronger than in many years."
 "Five years ago when on the train going from Bonanza, Canada, to Calgary, I had a severe attack of acute indigestion and nobody thought I would live to reach my destination. When I came to myself I was in the hospital at Calgary."
 "Since then I have suffered constantly from bilious attacks and splitting headaches that lasted for days at a time. Everything I ate disagreed with me. I had another attack of acute indigestion and I would die. I would get so dizzy I could hardly stand up, and I was constipated all the time. I was so weak and did not get a good night's sleep for years. Many good things have happened since I have been using Sargon. I feel fine all the time."
 "Sargon made a well man of me. My nerves are steady as a die and I sleep like a boy. My old-time strength has returned and I have gained 15 pounds. I feel fine all the time."
