Osterkamp and Marjorie Howell and Gayle and Robert McCoy, Charles and readings by Charles and Claudine Paradis, Norman Leavitt, Buddy and Betty Schweizer, Leo Hollenberg, Albert Abbi, Florence and Eloise Russell. Mrs. C. L. McCoy was the announcer. The children marched around the tree and each received a treat. Coffee and cookies were served the grown-ups at a later hour. Archie Howell played the accordion for several dances which closed a pleasant evening for both the Clauses and the kiddies.

COMPLIMENTING BRIDE

Mrs. Howard J. Larsen and Mrs. Artie Robertson gave a delightful afternoon party Saturday in honor of Miss Edna Dennis, whose marriage to Ray Kendler of Nyssa was an event the following day. Nearly thirty guests were invited to the shower and those who could not attend sent their gifts. They were numerous and delightful. In guessing games favors were awarded to Mrs. S. D. Goshert, Miss Eva Boydell, Mrs. W. F. McLaugh and Mrs. Marion Klinsberg. At the close of the afternoon, the hostesses served light refreshments. The honoree received the good wishes of all present.

TUESDAY EVENING BRIDGE

Mrs. Leo D. Hollenberg entertained the Tuesday evening bridge club with a delightful Christmas party. Santa had left gifts on the tree for each club member. Mrs. J. J. Sarazin won first prize, Mrs. Ethel Crawford, second. Mrs. Frank T. Morgan was present for the first time since she became ill many months ago. A delicious lunch was served at the evening's close.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Celebrating her ninth birthday anniversary, Marjorie Groot invited six young friends to a party Tuesday. It was a jolly affair at her home in the country. Christmas ideas were carried out. After numerous games, Mrs. Dick Groot served a delicious birthday lunch. Mr. Groot called for the guests who lived in town and took them home.

FOR STUDENT

In honor of Miss Donna Cook, who is home from La Grande Normal for the holidays, Miss Evalyn Earp entertained with a little Christmas dinner party Sunday for Misses Donna and Thelma Cook, Henry Hatch of Big Bend, Herschel Thompson, Earl Marshall and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McLaugh. Christmas packages served as place cards and the table was centered with red tapers.

WITH NAMPA FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wilson attended the Christmas party given by Twamo bridge club of Nampa last Wednesday evening. After dinner at the Dewey Palace hotel, they played contract at the home of Mrs. F. H. Wheeler. Mrs. Wilson brought home the first prize for ladies.

ALUMNI START CLUB

Younger alumni students of Nyssa high school have organized an alumni club with a membership of eight couples. They were entertained last Tuesday evening at the first party at the home of John and Annie Stam, cards providing the amusement for the evening with a delightful lunch at the close. Bill Keizer won first prize and Earl Marshall, low. The plan is to have a party every two weeks with the hosts for the evening to arrange entertainment. Cards, dancing and outdoor parties have been suggested.

SNOW CONTINUES IN WESTFALL AREA

Westfall—A heavy snowfall followed the cold spell at Westfall, with snow continuing at frequent intervals through the past week.

Garret Smit of Vale stayed at the George Toombs ranch home while he gathered his cattle last week. He began the drive to Vale Wednesday.

C. Smith and his brother Dutch and P. Jensen gathered in the Smith and R. H. DeArmond cattle last week.

Art Shaw has returned home from the Rufino Arrien ranch where he was employed several weeks.

The Westfall store has a new outlook on life with numerous improvements. Repairs were made by Lloyd Edmundson.

The two little White children of Ontario are staying at the Toombs home for the winter.

Claud Derrick recently purchased some horses from Mr. Arrien.

APPLE VALEY MEN BEGIN ICE HARVEST

Apple Valley—The San Diego Fruit and Produce company have started a large crew to put up ice on the Boise river. They average about 250 tons per day.

Mrs. Minton spent the afternoon with Mrs. M. A. McDonald Wednesday renewing old acquaintances.

Mrs. Rollo Rucker honored her daughter Mamie by entertaining at dinner for Betty Correll, Madelyn and Olive Marie Bailey, Norma Nichols, Star Robinson and the little Glenn girl last week. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McIntyre visited Glenn Merriam's at Parma Sunday.

Mrs. M. Clendening and son Thomas went to Boise Monday.

Owl Patrol of the Boy Scouts met Thursday night at Billy Danforth's home. Scouts served their own refreshments.

Jack Reed and Ralph Stephens left recently for Enid, Okla., where they plan an indefinite visit. They were "hitch-hiking" and cards sent home indicated they were making good progress.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Boston of Swan Falls called at the J. I. Boston home last week when enroute to Swan Falls from a vacation trip to Spokane. Carl Pielstick served on the jury in Caldwell last week.

Cedric and Loyd Caldwell picked corn for Cy Birk last week.

Ivan Brown narrowly escaped serious injury last Thursday when operating a Fresno. The team bolted and the lines caught around Ivan's waist. He was dragged quite a distance but suffered only minor bruises.
