JORDAN VALLEY AND McDERMITT PEOPLE ATTEND BASQUE BALL

McDermitt—The Latin temperament, happy and carefree, was decidedly in evidence, at the annual Shepherders' Charity Ball held at Danceland in Boise Monday evening. Off the range where they have been tending sheep all summer and fall came the herders, clad in overalls with red and green bandanas around their necks and red and white berets worn jauntily over one ear. Each found a pretty senorita.

"La Jota" was danced with delightful abandon by many groups and the "Aurresku," one of the oldest of the Basque dances was led by Jess Tortorica of Boise with Manuel Uriona of Mountain Home acting as "Atzisku." (The dance somewhat resembles "London Bridge"). Senorita Tortola Valencia had planned to leave immediately after her solo dance for Los Angeles but it was quite as well for her dance resembled the music was furnished for her number.

At midnight a prize lamb was auctioned with proceeds from it and the dance for St. Alphonsus hospital and other charities. Mountain home sent the most guests with 100 present. Guests attended from Jordan Valley and McDermitt. Among the out of town people were Mrs. John Aristobal, Mrs. John Uriona, Simeon Bidegoneta, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bengochea, Misses Inez and Dorothy Yurri, Juan Elgezabal, Jose Urquidi, Pedro Meatis, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Aguirri, Juan Eguia of Nevada and Mr. and Mrs. Angel Aboitz of McDermitt.

John Achabal of Boise was president of the benefit dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Aboitz returned from Boise with a new Ford eight.

STUDENTS AT AROCK GIVE XMAS PROGRAM

Arock—The Arock community gives Mrs. Clara J. Baker much credit for one of the nicest Christmas entertainments ever given by the school here. With thirty-five students taking part, the program was separated into three divisions. The first centered around the meaning of Christmas, the second included several Christmas playlets and the third consisted of singing Christmas carols and other oldtime songs.

One of the prettiest numbers was a hoop drill by eight little girls who wore dresses in pastel shades trimmed with tinsel. Singing was excellent and the plays were exceptionally well rendered. A large crowd enjoyed the entertainment.

Miss Evelyn and Harold Sparks of Caldwell spent Christmas at the W. A. McNall home.
