

We Carry Window Glass

Regular sizes in stock and we can cut to fit any size you like. See us for building supplies.

NEW HOUSEHOLD HARDWARE

Baldrige Imp. Co.
NYSSA OREGON

Start the New Year Right By Paying All YOUR BILLS

Start 1933 with confidence—self confidence and the confidence others have in you. A good CREDIT standing will inspire both.

You will then enter transactions with self reliance born of the knowledge that your credit slate is clean.

You will be received by others with a feeling of assurance that you will keep your trust.

Two stepping stones in the path of real achievement.

Make a New Years Resolution
To PAY YOUR BILLS PROMPTLY

Retail Credit Assn.

Nyssa Ontario Vale

LITTLE NEWS OF NYSSA

Boy Scouts played Santa for sixty children during the holidays. They gave sixty toys for needy families.

C. M. Bentley is spending the day at the city hall where he is giving drivers' licenses.

J. C. Himler came over from Nampa Saturday to spend the day with Fred Marshall.

Mrs. Hugh Skinner and new baby of Jordan Valley have been spending the holidays with Mrs. Skinner's mother Mrs. C'Ceal Boswell at Vale.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Reberger are again nicely located at their farm home near town recently taken over from C. M. McDuffy who has gone to Burns.

Attorney E. M. Blodgett, Bernard Frost, Dave Dugger and A. V. Cook attended the grand jury hearing of the Stacey Profit case at Vale yesterday.

The S. D. Gosherts, H. Sales and Marion Klinkenberg were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Eder at New Plymouth New Year's day.

Mrs. Ralph Beutler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Thompson, left Tuesday for Salem after spending Christmas vacation here.

While her parents were recovering from the flu, little Katherine Kakebeke of Snively spent the holidays with her grandfather John Kakebeke.

Mrs. John Forbes and Mrs. Merle Johnson will entertain the Rebekah Sunshine club Friday, January 13, no unlucky day for the Rebekahs, at the home of Mrs. Forbes near town.

Miss Verna Fee of Boise, sister of Mrs. Floyd E. White, will spend the remainder of the winter at the White home. She is a nurse and has been helping Dr. J. J. Sarazin in the care of little Phyllis Foster this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar G. Bauer and family left Ontario for Portland the forepart of the week where Mr. Bauer has work with the Regional Agricultural Credit bank. Since leaving Nyssa about a year ago, Mr. Bauer has been working in the Ontario National bank.

Kermat Lienkaemper returned yesterday from Portland where he spent the holidays with his parents Rev. and Mrs. A. F. Lienkaemper. Kermat says the trains were so crowded during the holidays, he could hardly find a place to hang his hat.

St. Paul's Guild will meet next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Dick Tensen with Mrs. Betty LaFrenz joint hostess. Good attendance is desired.

Roger Pounds of Nampa, cousin of Roy Pounds, was married at the Pounds home here Tuesday by the Rev. Earl Pounds, also of Nampa.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Frizzell and Miss Mary Mattingly returned Monday from a holiday visit with Mrs. Frizzell's parents at Rockville.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Burger were in town Tuesday from Terteling camp near Adrian. Burger is dragline operator for the Terteling company.

Mrs. P. M. Brinkley returned home Friday from Prosser, Wash., where she spent the holidays with her sister. She was away a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. B. Nordale gave a New Year's dinner for the Roy Sterling family of Payette and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Splawn of Arcadia.

Mrs. Ella Kirk has returned from Sacramento, Cal., to spend the balance of the winter with her daughter Mrs. Robt. H. Martin and family.

Omer Adkinson left Monday for his home near Pendleton where he will spend the next few months. He will resume work in the spring at the Nyssa Pharmacy.

Jess Marman of Boise spent the holidays at the home of Rev. Floyd E. White. He left for Idaho Falls where he is beginning vocational education work for the extension service of Idaho.

Nyssa Grain company sold a carload of corn to W. B. Owens of Dayville last week. Owens has been trucking machinery to this section and is hauling the corn to Dayville on return.

A number of people in the community have been quite ill of influenza during the past week. Mrs. Ed. Wilson, Mrs. Al Thompson, Frank T. Morgan and Mrs. Joe Gilmore and son Keith among them.

J. R. Hunter received word from his old home in England last week that conditions are improving. Friends wrote that mines have reopened and in general the outlook is much improved for 1933.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Spencer have leased a restaurant in Boise. During the holidays their son Freddie, a student in Nyssa high, joined them in Boise where he will complete the school year.

E. W. Glass was in town for supplies the last of the week. He reports the General Construction company has established camp near Juntura has that work is commencing on the Central Oregon highway grading contract.

Bill Connelly returned last week from San Francisco where he spent Christmas vacation with relatives. After visiting Nyssa friends, he went on to Owyhee dam where his company has begun work on the installation of control gates at Tunnel No. 1.

Girl Scouts of the 4th patrol met at the Sarazin home this week to complete work for their housekeeping badge under the supervision of Mrs. Betty LaFrenz. They are also working for the dressmaker's badge with the help of Mrs. Dick Tensen.

The Journal staff enjoyed the visit of a number of Vale people who were in Nyssa last Thursday. Among them were P. R. Shurtliff, Frank Halverson, County Engineer J. Edwin Johnson, Mrs. A. S. Hunt and son John, who was home from a Washington college and Miss Katherine Boswell, who was home from Bend where she is teaching.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Marshall were here Monday from their home at Valley View school where Mr. Marshall is teaching. They incidentally reported the recent arrival of a second baby in the home of their son Loye Marshall, principal of the junior high school at Medford. The baby daughter has been named Lora Jean. Mr. Marshall's school reopened Tuesday after a weeks vacation. The school had a splendid Christmas program, supervised by Mrs. Chas. Christenson and Mr. Marshall.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our kind friends and neighbors for their helpful words and deeds, and for the flowers received at the time of the death of our beloved father and grandfather, M. A. Pattison. Mrs. Lilly Bach, Mrs. W. W. Nichols and family, Mrs. James Lane and family.

JOURNAL WELCOMES RENEWALS, MANY NEW SUBSCRIBERS

Again, The Journal wishes to say "thank you" to the friends who have renewed their subscriptions and to welcome the many who have just joined The Journal family. Last week new subscribers and renewals included: Franklin Fry, Geo. Adams, R. J. Davis, J. C. Beam, George Kaylor, W. A. McNall, Garrit Groot, Will Beam Geo. R. Swan, John Pratt John Forbes, Robt. H. Martin, Conrad Martin, A. D. Moses, H. R. Sherwood, W. E. Walters, Felton Duncan, J. N. Shelton, Mrs. J. Boydell, Loyd Marshall, H. B. Williams, C. C. Hunt, M. M. Greeling of Nyssa and the R. F. D. Others were F. H. Blewett new settler who came from Olympia, Wash., last spring, P. R. Shurtliff and Henry Bishop of Vale, Retail Credit office of Ontario, Ben Cook of Seattle, Earl Warren of Yakima, Harlan A. Diven of Caldwell, J. Will Beckley of Roseburg.

Other welcome additions are people from nearby farming communities, H. R. Otis of Adrian, Silas Pointe, M. W. Schweizer and Walter Marshall of Ontario Route 1, F. E. Newbill and Charles Purdy of Big Bend, Geo. Smit of Apple Valley, T. T. Garlick of Arock and Angel Abolts of McDermitt, Frank Stearns and Miss Evelyn Noble of Jordan Valley.

Thank you, all, and Happy New Year.

Marshall A. V. Cook received word from Baker today that his father had suffered a stroke of paralysis.

Miss Margaret Kilpatrick returned to Vale Monday after spending the holidays with the Donald M. Graham family.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Dimmick returned from Yakima last week after spending Christmas vacation with relatives.

Wesley Browne and family and Mr. and Mrs. Birchel Nelson spent New Year's day at the Fred Baker home in Caldwell.

Miss Bernice Vorhies was home from Homedale during the holidays.

FOR SALE—Good, laying Rhode Island Red pullets 50c each. MRS. CHAS. SPLAWN, mile west of K. S. and D. ranch, Jan. 5-26.

Presenting

Princess Marie

A nationally known perfumer has been successful in obtaining the services of a chemist of international reputation who was forced to leave his Fatherland and migrate to the United States. This genius has brought with him the priceless formulas used by a Moscow cosmetician who in the past supplied the Russian nobility with their favorite toilettries.

Through "Princess Marie" these formulas, scientifically perfected, are today introduced for your inspection. Volume sales by this nationally known perfumer have permitted this popular price. You cannot find greater merit in preparations many times their cost.

You have your choice of many outstanding preparations!

Face Powder	Liquid Cold Cream
Cold Cream	Vanishing Cream
Perfume	Toilet Water
Wave Set	Brilliantine
Deto-odor	Skin Freshener
Almond Lotion	Cucumber Lotion
Cocoonut Oil Shampoo	Tar Shampoo
Glycerine and Rose Water

YOUR CHOICE ONLY

WAVE SET 15c
Other Items Introductory Offer Each 19c (Reg. at 25c)

"Princess Marie" TOILETRIES

OF PROVEN MERIT
SOLD EXCLUSIVELY BY

You will be delighted with "Princess Marie" Toiletries! Try Them!

"Princess Marie" without doubt America's Greatest Toiletries Values! Try Them!

NYSSA PHARMACY

ALEXANDER'S

ONTARIO, OREGON

STARTS OFF THE NEW YEAR 1933 WITH A ROUSING JANUARY

Overcoat and Suit SALE

That will outclass all previous efforts—not alone from a standpoint of Lowest Prices you ever heard of, but included herein are the finest tailored and finest fabrics you can find in the west.

THIS EVENT STARTS THIS MORNING

The Month of January The Limit Take Your Pick

- | | |
|----------------|--|
| $8.85 | Choice of Suits and Overcoats bringing $15.00 only a week ago. |
| $11.85 | Choice of Suits and Overcoats bringing $20.00 only a week ago. |
| $14.85 | Choice of Suits and Overcoats bringing up to $25 only last week. |
| $17.85 | Your Choice of Suits and Overcoats selling up to $35.00 but a week ago. |

YOUR PICK OF OUR STOCK MEN'S LATEST DRESS HATS, worth to $3.50. $1.85

DRESS SHIRTS HALF PRICE AND LESS

95c = Take your choice of these five Dress Shirts selling last week up to $1.95.

STARTING THIS WEEK AT ALEXANDER'S

"Where Good Clothes Cost Less"

ONTARIO

OREGON

STATEMENT OF CONDITION OF THE Ontario National Bank

ONTARIO, OREGON

As made to the Comptroller of Currency at the close of business December 31, 1932

RESOURCES		LIABILITIES
Loans and Discounts	$339,005.18	Capital	60,000.00
United States Bonds and Treasury Notes	268,400.00	Surplus	20,000.00
City of Ontario Bonds	74,265.00	Undivided Profits	11,098.48
Other Bonds	27,096.00	Deposits	759,834.53
Malheur County School District Warrants	20,108.85	Circulation	60,000.00
Other Municipal Warrants	6,125.09
Furniture and Fixtures	2,500.00
Banking House	22,500.00
Stock in Federal Reserve Bank	4,500.00
Cash on hand and due from banks	148,432.89
	$910,933.01		$910,933.01

WE HOLD NO FOREIGN OBLIGATIONS OR BONDS

We wish at this time to express our appreciation to our customers for their business during the past year and to wish them A HAPPY NEW YEAR.

CRAWFORD MOORE, President
C. R. EMISON, Cashier

J. W. CUNNINGHAM, Vice-President
JOE F. DYER, Assistant Cashier