

Arcadia Pupils Give Plays At Legion Party

Mrs. C. A. Abbott's school pupils of Arcadia and Boy Scouts of Nyssa divided honors in the presentation of the program given Friday evening for the Nyssa Legion Post and Auxiliary. A large crowd attended and lunch was served at the close.

Arcadia's fourth grade wrote the Washington operetta given by 3rd and 4th grade children the cast including Evelyn Zittercob, Keith Orris, Ethel Mull, Marie Doman, Earl Beeman, Dolores Calloway, Max Long, Jack Zittercob, Wilma Hipp, Lawrence Orris and Mildred Sager. First and 2nd grade children dramatized, "The Paper and Lead Soldier" with Wilma Bullard, Marjorie Orris, Evelyn Points, Ruth Calloway, Arvin Doman and Gerald Seaburn taking part. The Boy Scouts conducted a council fire with Scoutmaster Howard J. Larsen in charge. Other enjoyable numbers on the program were piano selections by Mrs. F. W. Osterkamp, duet, Ella Martin and Margaret Pinkerton; the minuet dance by Lucile Thrasher and Marlene Hollenberg.

EAGLES PARTY

The fifth of the series of six card parties given by the Eagles lodge was an event Thursday night attended by a good-sized crowd. Mrs. Artie Robertson and W. F. McLing won high scores at bridge, Dewey Ray and Mrs. Lloyd Marshall, low prizes; Mrs. Barr Doolittle and Bud Garman, high scores at pin-ochle, Mrs. Charles Gardner and Norville Leuck low. At the close lunch was served by Mrs. Marshall's hostess committee. Dancing following, many young people arriving at a later hour for supper and the dancing. Wesley J. Browne was chairman for the evening. The final card party will be given Friday night, March 10.

MRS. KING ENTERTAINS

A frequent visitor in Nyssa, Mrs. Marie A. King, mother of Mrs. C. L. McCoy, has been entertained in a number of homes. On Monday evening she gave a return party for twelve guests at the McCoy home. Dessert was served and bridge followed, high score falling to Mrs. Snyder and second high to Mrs. McCoy. Mrs. King plans to return to Portland soon.

MONDAY BRIDGE

Monday bridge club met with Mrs. Ray Emmott this week. Mrs. Hermione Snyder substituting for Mrs. Eddie Powell, who was ill. After six tables of cards, Mrs. Ed. Wilson won first prize, Mrs. Howard J. Larson consolation. The hostess served dessert.

DOUBLE BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Mary Felton and Mrs. P. M. Binkley gave a birthday dinner Wednesday at the Felton home in compliment to Mr. Binkley and Mrs. Roy James, granddaughter of Mrs. Felton.

On the Old Job

H. D. Holmes

TRANSFER AND BAGGAGE

All Kinds of Hauling in City Limits

NYSSA, OR. PHONE 5

Mr. Binkley celebrated his 76th birthday. A pleasant time is reported.

10th BIRTHDAY

Doris Graham invited twelve school friends to her home Monday after school to celebrate her 10th birthday. They had favors, a candle-light cake and luncheon. Doris received many nice gifts.

WASHINGTON DANCE AT JORDAN VALLEY

Jordan Valley—This community celebrated Washington's birthday with a hard times dance. It was a masquerade affair and prizes for most original costumes were won by Miss Laura Zabala, Miss Irene Yurri, Billie Shea and Rudy Rementeria. Dr. W. W. Jones and Miss Aurora Madariaga, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Laca won the awards for most beautiful waiting.

Mrs. Hazel Stitzel of Danner was called to Caldwell Saturday by the death of her father Irvin M. Baldwin of Caldwell. Funeral services were held on Tuesday.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Omer Stanfield of Upper Cow Creek last week.

Harry Staples has rented the State Line Ranch from R. L. Munger.

Bill Johnson and wife will move to their South Mountain ranch.

Thos. R. Cowgill and Joe Beck went to Vale last week on legal business.

Faye Tague, Silver City stage operator, found it necessary to have another horse on his stage line so last Wednesday he made a trip to Nyssa where he purchased a horse. Tague was obliged to cover his route about a week ago Monday on account of the deep snow.

Sam Ross is feeding his sheep at the Joe Elguren ranch.

Sam Scott and Joe Fenwick purchased the old Rock postoffice which has been torn down and moved into the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mills were called to Boise last week by the death of Mr. Mills.

The Altar society met with Mrs. Bell Lee last Wednesday.

Sheldon Parks entertained a number of his friends at cards Friday night.

The Good and Welfare Committee of Beehive Rebekah Lodge, Mrs. G. L. Parks, Mrs. Mona Gusman and Mrs. Madalyn Laca entertained the members with Valentine games and a delicious luncheon at the last meeting.

Joe Zangara, the crazy anarchist who tried to assassinate President Roosevelt was sentenced to 80 years in the penitentiary. The wretch should have been sent up for life.—Fruitland Banner.

Calling cards $1 for box of 100, any type you like. Nyssa Journal, City.

4-H Girls Will Entertain For Mothers Soon

MALHEUR COUNTY 4-H CLUBS

NYSSA

The 7th and 8th grade sewing club led by Miss Harriet Ahearn met Monday, with the president, Nellie Jean Schweizer, presiding. Mildred Rutledge was elected reporter. Each girl was then called on to tell how much sewing she had completed. Further plans were made for entertaining the mothers at the same time Miss Helen Cowgill, assistant state club leader, makes her visit. After singing a few 4-H songs the meeting adjourned.

KINGMAN KOLONY

Organization of 4-H clubs in Kingman Kolony has again begun. So far three clubs have completed organization and at least three more will soon. New clubs are: Cookery I and II led by Mrs. Clarence Elliott, Poultry II led by C. E. Winters and Forestry I led by Maurice Judd.

ONTARIO

Although nine clubs have been organized and are functioning in fine shape in Ontario, only one of the nine sent in the story for use in this column. We hope that more stories will be sent in for next week.

The Dough Girls Cooking club No. 2, has been holding regular meetings every Monday under the direction of Mrs. McKennon. So far five meetings have been held and at each two girls have demonstrated the preparation of a certain dish. These were: cream of tomato soup, Joan Smith and Peggy Stingle; vegetable salad, Dorothy Messee and Barbara Van Valkenburg; baked potatoes and macaroni and cheese, Helen Anderson and Virginia Cox; omelet, Ruby Thorp and Elda Hickox. The club has been discussing a cooked food sale.

ARCADIA

For the first time, 4-H clubs have been organized in Arcadia. Ella Points, champion home economics club member in Malheur county last year, is largely responsible. She is leading a handwork club consisting of Hazel Beeman, Flora Newton, Stella Doman, La Vena Philipps, Ida Beeman Evelyn Zittercob and Nadine Calloway.

Another club led by Frank Points has camp cookery as its project. Members are Harold Points, Billy Points, Lester Newton, Harold Long, Earl Beeman, Shirley Calloway and Floyd Wickland.

ADVERTISING is as essential to business as is rain to growing crops. It is the keystone in the arch of merchandising. Let The Journal carry your message to the buyers in this territory.

Something New

Is your suit too small or in need of repair? If so, bring it to the Nyssa Tailor Shop and trade it in on a New Spring Suit—100 patterns to choose from all wool, fit guaranteed. Old Suits taken in at from $2.50 to $10, depending on the condition. Spring Suits $16.50 less price of old suit. Will also take in top coats on single trousers.

NYSSA TAILOR SHOP

Nyssa, Ore.

This offer is for a short time only
Come Early

LOW GRAZING FEE VOTED FOR 1933

Sheepmen will welcome the passage by the senate Saturday of the Steiwer-Carey joint resolution directing the

A. L. FLETCHER

I. O. O. F. Building
Attorney-at-Law
Vale, Oregon

secretary of agriculture to fix grazing fees for national forest lands at the same rates charged in 1932. This is a reduction of 50 per cent below the rates charged in 1931.

For a good shave, hair cut or shower bath come to—

McHargue's
BARBER SHOP
Laundry Agency

Liberty Theatre

Friday-Saturday, March 3-4

Alan Dinehart, Mae Clark and Neil Hamilton in

As The Devil Commands

You will find the above program very entertaining. Also a Curiosity, Traveltalk and Cartoon

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, March 5, 6, 7

Little Orphan Annie

The funny page sweetheart of millions leaps into life on the screen.

There's no age limit, if you're human you'll enjoy it. Also Comedy, Fables and Pathe News.

Prices 10-25c. Family price on all shows.

A NEW LOW MINIMUM 10 LBS. 50c

NO MORE SPLIT PRICES May Be All Flat Work

An Improved Service

Starch Used Where Needed

THRIFT

5c Per Lb.

Everything washed, everything dried, flat pieces ironed and starch goods starched. Handkerchiefs will be ironed for 1c each, upon request.

This service would be called Rough-Dry most places and commonly sells for 8, 9, 10 or 11 cents per pound. Now, more than ever before, you cannot afford to wash at home. Send your washing to us and help another worker get a job.

ONTARIO LAUNDRY

EVERYBODY- WASHES-WITH-RAIN-WATER-JONES

Announcing - - - the new Standard All-Point Recorded Lubrication Service

IT IS A LUBRICATION SERVICE THAT IS—

It will tell you when your car is hungry for oiling and greasing. It reduces to an accurate schedule the whole complicated job of servicing free-wheeling units, front-wheel bearings, differential, shackles and the dozen of other important places that need service at different periods.

THE COMPLETE RECORD is kept in the Standard Watchman's certificate that goes on your steering post! We remind you besides—by mail. It is the liveliest motoring service in town—ask us all about it.

WE INVITE EVERY MOTORIST OF THIS VICINITY TO COME IN AND SEE OUR NEW LUBRICATION DEPARTMENT.

POWELL SERVICE STATION

Open Day and Night

NYSSA

OREGON