APRIL FOOL PARTY AT K. STAM HOME

Everyone was fooled at a real April Fool party enjoyed by Oregon Trail folk at the K. Stam home last Saturday night, even the host being surprised when the guests finally decided the party was to be at his home. April Fool pinocchio provided diversion until a late hour when extraordinary prizes delighted the winners and losers. "Idaho spuds" that looked like candy proved to be baked potatoes while the real candies were the homely coat of the real Irish. At the close a delicious lunch, with no fooling, was served. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Byers, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. DeCroft, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Dimmick, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Patton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lathen and Mr. Stam.

FORUM CLUB WILL TALK SALES TAX

The proposed sales tax will be discussed at the regular meeting of the Ontario Forum club next Tuesday night at the Ontario gymnasium, with E. C. Van Petten and Representative V. B. Staples leading the discussion. Everyone interested is invited to attend.

NYSSA COMMUNITY CHURCH

Sunday School 10 o'clock. We are preparing for the Easter program to be given on April 16 at 8 p. m. Morning Worship 11 o'clock. Subject: Jesus and the Cross. Epworth League 8 o'clock followed by a Sermonette: The Prince of Life. This is a special service for the young people but every one is welcome.

Shearers have been working at several sheep camps in this section, shearing the small flocks that have been left at home for a short while. Most of the sheep have gone to the hills. Shearers were at the Jack McConnell ranch yesterday.

WIDE RANGE OF BENNETT ROLES

Constance Bennett, during her screen experience has played a wider range of parts than any other leading star a review of her career discloses. She has enacted western roles light comedy farce tragedy, social drama and melodrama and all during this picture-by-picture test of her talents her rise has been smooth and sure.

WHEELER-WOOLSEY COMING

It's too bad about the man who wouldn't go to see "The Dark Horse" because he thought it was an animal picture, because when he sees "So This Is Africa!" the latest Wheeler-Woolsey madcap-revelry, he's due for a lot of more confusion. It is coming to the Liberty Theatre, Saturday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

FOUND—Purse containing driver's license for Myrl Farmer, Journal, City.

CANYON DAYS ARE HERE AGAIN

Tune: Happy Days
Those Canyon Days are here once more You'd better be there, there'll be fun galore;
This is the time that we've been waiting for,
Canyon Days are here again.

There'll be games and dances
And good things to eat,
We're gonna have music that can't be beat;
And boy, the girls down here are awfully sweet,
Canyon Days are here again.

So forget your sorrows and care
And try your best to be there
(For we know you'll like it).
In Oregon you can buy your beer again
You can fill up a glass with cheer again
And the brew you drink is clear again
Happy days are here again.

In the glasses they'll serve
There won't be much foam
But it'll be better than you make at home,
It will give "Sweet Adeline" a better tone.
Canyon days are here again.
