Lois Steinhaus was a guest of Mary Fairman at the J. D. Fairman ranch last Friday.

4-H Members Will Exhibit At Fall Fair

COUNTY 4-H NEWS

Four-H club members of Malheur county will be interested in knowing that the Ontario Commercial club has given assurance that whether there is a county fair or not, they will hold a 4-H and Future Farmers fair. As a result each club member may work with the idea in mind of exhibiting his or her project just as usual. The first piece exhibits in each division of cooking, sewing, canning, handwork, corn gardens and handicraft will be sent to the state fair if possible.

Another development of general interest has been the decision to continue the Malheur county corn growing contest. There will again be a junior and senior division. The sweepstakes award was won by an eight year old boy last year. Any corn club member is eligible and urged to enter this contest. Entrance cards will be mailed later.

NYSSA

Here is the story of a fine meeting held by the eighth grade sewing club of Nyssa. At a regular meeting Monday activities for the rest of the year were discussed and it was decided to combine the much talked of program and tea with achievement day. It was also decided to hold a special meeting Friday to check in all work completed.

Mrs. Betty La Frenz was invited to demonstrate darning. Then the girls talked over the 12 points of the "Well Dressed Girl" chart. Miss Harriet Ahearn, leader, offered a prize to the girl who best keeps the rules for one month.

ONTARIO

Eight girls who organized a new club under the leadership of Mrs. W. L. Turner have finished a handwork project and decided they wanted to go ahead with a Cooking 1 project. They have already held two meetings. The officers and members of the club are as follows: Dorothy Whyman, President; Shirley Walker, vice president; Ethel Miller, secretary; Margaret Taylor, reporter; Evelyn Rusk, song leader; Juanita Wilson, yell leader; Betty Speelman and Ethel Small.

The Robin Red Breast sewing club girls led by Mrs. R. G. Larson have almost completed their projects. They have held meetings each Tuesday since their organization. Special mention might be made of the faithfulness of the club reporters Barbara and Martha Young. These girls have turned in their news stories regularly each week and have always made them interesting.

RIVERDALE

The first rose and flower garden club to be organized in Malheur county has begun its work under the leadership of Margaret Patch, last year's Union Pacific scholarship winner. Officers and members are: Retha Guilford, president; Fern Hopper, vice president; Irene Hopper, secretary; Lucille Gillard, Mary Barton and Mary Jo Kyte.

The girls have selected, "Future's Famous Florists" as their club name. They have decided to have a club garden at the home of their leader instead of individual gardens.

MILLION DOLLAR RAIN DRENCHES IRONSIDE

Ironsides—Stockmen and ranchers called the shower of last week a million dollar rain as it filled the creek and drenched the range and fields. Water prospects are good.
