The Babe had nothing on the mail carriers and reclamation boys when they staged a free hitting contest at last night's game in kitten ball. Jim Graham and Ray Kendler did not stop at one home run but clouted two. Robertson, Prof. Hollenberg, John

In a clash that closely resembled real baseball, the Eagles defeated the Firemen 6 to 2 Monday night in the kitten ball series. Ed. Norcott pitched for the Eagles, his brother Art for the Firemen. Ed. Norcott's triple, scoring two men, was the feature of the game but the scorekeeper said Norcott could have made it a homer if he had been a racer.

RAILROAD CHIEFS GET BIG CUT IN SALARY

No longer will the railroads be able to borrow huge sums for operation from the R. F. C. and at the same time pay their executives ridiculously high salaries. Without waiting for enactment of pending legislation, the R. F. C. decreed Monday that corporations coming to borrow from the government must cut the salaries of their executives to reasonable figures.
