BOULEVARD GRANGE HEARS DRY SPEAKER

Boulevard—The meeting of Boulevard Grange at the hall Friday was well attended. Miss Aldridge, national field representative of the W. C. T. U., gave an interesting lecture on prohibition. Geo. Alken and Maurice Frakes, lecturer, discussed the sales tax, and R. G. Larson, the wheat plan. He announced a series of meetings to be held soon. Piano solos by Mrs. Russell Mc-

Kennon and Jessie Milligan completed the program.

Farmers in the community are harvesting grain this week. David Chadwick, Curt Ingle are binding for several. Most farmers will bind this year to get the use of the straw which would be wasted if a combine were used.

Several have dug their potatoes the past week with more to be dug next week.
