

Civic Club Talks Flower Show At Garden Meeting

GARDEN PARTY

Mrs. C. W. Barrett entertained members of the flower show committee of Nyssa Civic club at a garden party last Thursday afternoon at her delightful country home. Although the severe wind of the previous day played havoc in the garden, it was very beautiful. Luncheon was served in the yard. Guests were confined to members of the committee, Mrs. Eddie Powell, chairman, Mrs. Ernest C. Wilson, Mrs. C. C. Hunt, Mrs. Jess Thompson, Mrs. Ted Newell and Mrs. Dick Groot. Mrs. Barrett is also a member Mrs. J. J. Sarazin club president also attended.

Plans were outlined for the flower show which will be held early in September when fall flowers will be their best.

EPISCOPAL PICNIC

Wednesday was a gala day for members of the Sunday School of St. Paul's Episcopal church for it was the day of the annual picnic. Teachers had charge of the event which provided a delightful time for picnickers numbering seventy-five. After a swim in the Caldwell natorium, a big supper was spread in the Caldwell park. Those who took cars were Mrs. Dwight Smith, Mrs. E. D. Norcott, Mrs. Howard Larsen, Mrs. A. H. Boydell, Supt. and Mrs. Leo Hollenberg, Mrs. Dewey Ray, Mrs. J. J. Sarazin, Mrs. Dick Tensen and the Rev. and Mrs. Stanley Moore.

EAGLES IMPROVE HALL

At the regular meeting of the Eagles lodge on Wednesday night a vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Wayne French and Mrs. Don M. Graham who made the new curtains for the Eagles hall. On Saturday a committee consisting of Tom Burton, Kermit Lienkaemper, Irby Smith and Warren Biodegett put the curtains up. They make quite an improvement in the appearance of the hall.

SWIMMING PARTY

Mrs. Sidney Burbidge and Mrs. Dewey Ray gave a swimming party on Monday evening for Veri Hoover, who invited twelve boys and girls to the jolly affair. After a swim in the Shoestring ditch, a weiner and marshmallow roast was highly enjoyed.

JUNTURA ENGINEER WEDS

Miss Grace McVey, daughter of Mrs. Val Huffman of Huntington, and Nicolle Toole were married Saturday after receiving their license to wed in Vale. Mr. Toole is a civil engineer who graduated from Oregon State college in 1932. He is with the state highway department and is stationed on Central Oregon highway work at Juntura. The young couple will reside in Juntura.

KOLONY GARDEN CLUB

Mrs. Thomas Rooney, Miss Lessie McDonald, Mrs. T. McParlin Gough of Parma, Mrs. Geo. Judd and her sister, Mrs. Hansen of Minnesota, who is spending the summer here, were guests Thursday of the Kingman Kolony Garden club which met at the home of Mrs. Maurice Judd. "Flowers and their culture" and how to get flowers ready for an exhibit were discussed by Mrs. Rooney, and "Insects, garden pests and their control" were discussed by Miss McDonald. Mrs. Martin of the Kolony read a paper on Chrysanthemums. Light refreshments were served late in the afternoon.

GRAIN CROP HEAVY IN SAND HOLLOW

Sand Hollow—Farmers in the Sand Hollow district near Vale are beginning the harvest of an unusually large crop of grain, which was planted on former alfalfa lands in many cases. George Russell has one of the largest crops. Tuesday Trent Johnson's threshing crew began work at the Dr. Karl Norvall ranch. His sons Roy and Harold and Jim Inman are working with him.

Glen Hainline, Arthur Hildebrandt and Ernest Card are on a trip to Salt Lake.

Mrs. Rush McHargue spent last week in Nyssa with her son Warren and family.

Miss Marjorie Norvall has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fisher near Nyssa.

Ben Struthers will harvest the Russell grain crop with his combine.

BLAZE STARTS IN KLINGBACK THRESHER

Owyhee—The Fred Klingback threshing machine caught fire Thursday while harvesting the grain crop at the Russell Patton ranch. The straw rack was burned before the blaze could be extinguished by the crew. Mr. Klingback believes the fire started from a dust explosion. Racks were rebuilt and work was resumed Monday at the Patton ranch.

Wm. Peutz and sons Werner and William, Jr., and Bert Walters went to Long Valley, Ida., last Thursday to look after the Peutz sheep.

Albert Rust was a business visitor in the office of the Owyhee Ditch company Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Crawley and daughter, Marguerite and Miss Louise Hunter of Ontario were visitors in the Chas. Bradley home Sunday.
