PIERCES TELL OF LIFE IN WASHINGTON; JOHNSON PROVES FINE CHAIRMAN

J. Edwin Johnson was chairman of the tri-county grange picnic on Camp Creek Sunday which went down in the annals of the grange as the best picnic ever held. Mr. Johnson overlooked nothing—a piano for singing and the Vale band were there. Delightful were the talks of Congressman and Mrs. Walter M. Pierce of La Grande, who told of life in Washington.

Other numbers were violin solo, Wyla Hansen Purvis of Vale; fun features directed by Mrs. Karl Norvall and Ed. Charles; stunt, "Kitchen in Klinger Band." Prairie City grange; solo Al Quast; reading, Marjorie Norvall, Mrs. Norvall, Mrs. Esther Reed of Hereford and Mrs. Byri Axe of Grant county assisted with the program. Mrs. Frank McCarty of Boulevard supervised the serving of a bountiful feast. For a final treat, Oregon Slope grangers brought a load of watermelons. In the morning, Mrs. Joe King of Big Bend, Mrs. P. R. Shurtliff of Vale and Mrs. I. G. Fritzell directed games.

The committee for next year's picnic was re-elected with Mr. Johnson, chairman, Tom Derringer of Hereford, secretary; and George Yokum of Mt. Vernon, assistant.

Delegations attended from Big Bend, Boulevard, Vale, Oregon Slope and the new Wild Rose grange of Malheur. Among those from Big Bend were the H. R. Hatch, A. S. Grant and Joe King families, John Lienhard took a truckload from Boulevard but arrived late owing to motor trouble. V. V. Hickox, formerly of Big Bend, was there with the Oregon Slope delegation. Mr. Hickox has been in poor health during the past few months.
