

SURVEY MADE FOR LINK IN I-O-N HIGHWAY

HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT WILL EXPEND $50,000 ON SHORT CUT FROM McDERMITT NORTH.

Word came from Salem today that Oregon has completed the survey of the I-O-N highway from McDermitt north for the purpose of allocating a $50,000 appropriation of federal aid funds.

Last Friday, October 13, Leslie M. Scott, chairman of the Oregon highway commission, made a communication suggesting that "Idaho stop stalling and yelling" and go to work on the I-O-N.

GRANGE WELCOMES NATIONAL MASTER

Grangers from all parts of Malheur county gathered in Ontario last Thursday to welcome Louis J. Tabor, of Columbus, Ohio, national master of the grange.

"The United States cannot recover by classes," said Mr. Tabor. "We must go up or down together. Success of the recovery program now under way depends upon the teamwork of the different groups. If any class tries to hog the benefits, failure will result."

The Malheur Pomona is now directing its efforts toward the program which will be given with Canyon County, Ida., at Caldwell day of the national grange convention in Boise November 13 to 24.

Mrs. Norvall is conducting a song contest among the grangers for the purpose of securing a lively song to be sung by the delegation at the national grange. Entries will be sung at the Pomona meeting at Big Bend October 28, when the winner will be selected and a prize given.

RAFFERTY, McGILL HEAD VALE CARD

Fight fans saw a lively card at Vale last night when Pat Rafferty and Steve Magill staged the main go. The judges gave Rafferty the decision at the close of six hard-fought rounds.

POSTPONE FIGHT

Owing to a conflict in dates with a fight in Boise, the Eagles lodge will postpone the card planned for October 27, to an early date in November.

Professor Says Female Spider Is More Deadly Than Male; Is Bite Fatal

In the case of the black widow spider, as in other forms of life, the female of the species is more deadly than the male. This information came from Dean Orma J. Smith of the College of Idaho yesterday in answer to the black widow spiders which have been found in Nyssa, Adrian and Ontario.

GOVERNOR NAMES TENSEN ON FARM MORTGAGE BODY

Pieter Tensen, prominent local rancher, has been appointed a member of Governor Meier's agricultural advisory council for Oregon, to cooperate with federal officials in refinancing farm mortgages.

KITCHEN COACH HERE SATURDAY

IDAHO POWER WILL DISPLAY KITCHEN ON WHEELS IN NYSSA SATURDAY, 21st.

A complete modern kitchen in which the genie, electricity, performs every conceivable task of the American housewife and which is arranged scientifically to eliminate all ordinary drudgery, is coming to Nyssa for public inspection on Saturday, October 21.

STUDENT HONOR ROLL ANNOUNCED

The following students made the honor roll, denoting highest grades in each class, for the first six weeks period of school which closed last week.

GETS BIG BUCK

One of the largest bucks brought into Nyssa this season fell before the aim of Barney Wilson when he and Bill Lowe were hunting on the Little Malheur the latter part of the week. They returned Friday. Barney's deer weighed 213 pounds dressed.

PROFESSOR SAYS FEMALE SPIDER IS MORE DEADLY THAN MALE; IS BITE FATAL

of being poisonous. Indians of California are said to have poisoned their arrows by dipping the points in poison taken from the spiders.

MANY HUNTERS COME FOR OPEN PHEASANT SEASON

SEATTLE VISITORS FIND BEST OF SHOOTING HERE, "HUNS" ADD TO FUN IN MALHEUR COUNTY.

Pheasant season opened with a bang, bang Sunday morning and spatter guns continued to bark out their fury against Malheur county's game bird, the Chinese pheasant, all during the day and succeeding days.

ACCIDENT MARS LODGE MEETING

Nyssa Odd-Fellows and Rebekahs closed a busy week of lodge activities by attending Idaho grand lodge in Boise Tuesday. The day was marred by an accident which occurred in Boise when Mrs. A. V. Cook's car collided with a car driven by a tourist from Montana.

OREGON LEGISLATURE MEETS NOVEMBER 20

The Oregon legislature will be convened in special session on Monday, November 20, in Salem, according to an announcement made by Governor Meier this week.

BOVEN WILL COLLECT

O. S. C.—Ralph Boden, of Nyssa, junior in engineering at Oregon State college, has been selected collections manager for the 1934 Beaver, annual yearbook.

PRESIDENT SPEAKS OF VALE-OWYHEE

Will R. King attorney for the income tax division of the United States treasury department brought an interesting message direct from President Roosevelt when in the county last week.

THANK YOU

The Journal received the following renewals or new subscriptions during the week: W. L. Schafer, Nyssa; Nick Smit, Max R. Johnson, Ontario; Mrs. Sarah McConnell, Elgin; John Zetico, Angel Aboltz, McDermitt; C. H. Davison Nampa; Al Sheridan, Rockville.

Heavy Yields Of Baby Lima Beans Bring Good Price

One of the best paying crops produced here this year is Baby Lima beans, sold to a Twin Falls buyer at $3.10 per hundredweight cleaned, the buyer to pay for sacks and reconditioning.

GROWER STORES LATE APPLES

To provide that apple a day when there is more demand for the luscious, healthful fruit, C. C. Hunt is storing Rome Beauties and Winesaps in his packing house, just as most of the growers of this section are doing at present.

VALE AND NYSSA GRIDDERS TIE 6-6

Despite the jinx of injuries which has followed the Nyssa football squad this fall, the local boys played Vale's good team here Friday 6 to 6. With the help of Bob McCambridge, big shot for the county seat team, Vale scored a touchdown in the first quarter.

NYSSA BANK CASE HEARD SATURDAY

Presiding in court for Judge W. W. Wood, Judge Hendricks of Fossil heard the case of J. P. McGinnis vs. Robt. Tombs and the Malheur County Bank of Nyssa in Vale Saturday.

MAIL CARTING JOB IS OPEN TO BID

Until October 27, Postmaster Dean Smith will accept sealed bids on carrying city mail from the station to the postoffice, a task performed by P. M. Binkley for many years and in recent months by the present carrier Bobby Burns.

CROP DISPLAY IN PORTLAND

E. B. Conklin took a large display of Malheur county crops to the Pacific International Livestock Exposition which is opening in Portland Saturday for a week's run.

BOVEN WILL COLLECT

O. S. C.—Ralph Boden, of Nyssa, junior in engineering at Oregon State college, has been selected collections manager for the 1934 Beaver, annual yearbook.

COUNTY P-T-A WILL CONVENE SATURDAY

Malheur county council of Parents and Teachers will convene Saturday in Ontario with Mrs. Saide Orr Dunbar of Portland, president of the Oregon state tuberculosis association, the principal speaker.

BERT HANEY MAKES VISIT IN COUNTY

Business men of Nyssa, Vale, Harper, Juntura and Huntington have been invited to a luncheon meeting of the Ontario commercial club today in compliment to Bert E. Haney, chairman of the Oregon board of public works.

STATE ASKS FOR BIDS ON RIVER SPAN NEAR HERE

COMMISSION WILL OPEN BIDS OCTOBER 25, ON OWYHEE BRIDGE NEAR KAYLOR RANCH; C-O GETS MORE WORK.

The I-O-N highway is assured some early work on this end as the Oregon highway commission will receive bids October 25, on the construction of a new bridge across the Owyhee river near the George Kaylor ranch and 118 miles of grading and surfacing in that vicinity.

ENGINEER MAKES SURVEY

With Judge David F. Graham and Commissioners Ora E. Clark and E. H. Brumbach, R. E. Mollinet, highway engineer from the La Grande office, came to Nyssa yesterday for the purpose of securing right of way for the new bridge. The site will be relocated in order to eliminate the sharp curve at the present site.

WALTER MEAD, 80, DIES SATURDAY

Walter Mead, aged 80 years, father of Mrs. Frank Lynch of Nyssa with whom he resided in late years, died Saturday at the Ontario hospital after a long illness. Burial services were held in Ontario Sunday. Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Lynch, Mrs. Clay Blakely of Weiser, Mrs. W. J. Chiverell of Idaho Falls and Mrs. Frank Riggall of Arkansas and one son John Mead of Weiser. Mr. Mead had spent most of his life in this section.

WALTER MEAD, 80, DIES SATURDAY

Walter Mead, aged 80 years, father of Mrs. Frank Lynch of Nyssa with whom he resided in late years, died Saturday at the Ontario hospital after a long illness. Burial services were held in Ontario Sunday. Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Lynch, Mrs. Clay Blakely of Weiser, Mrs. W. J. Chiverell of Idaho Falls and Mrs. Frank Riggall of Arkansas and one son John Mead of Weiser. Mr. Mead had spent most of his life in this section.

WALTER MEAD, 80, DIES SATURDAY

Walter Mead, aged 80 years, father of Mrs. Frank Lynch of Nyssa with whom he resided in late years, died Saturday at the Ontario hospital after a long illness. Burial services were held in Ontario Sunday. Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Lynch, Mrs. Clay Blakely of Weiser, Mrs. W. J. Chiverell of Idaho Falls and Mrs. Frank Riggall of Arkansas and one son John Mead of Weiser. Mr. Mead had spent most of his life in this section.

WALTER MEAD, 80, DIES SATURDAY

Walter Mead, aged 80 years, father of Mrs. Frank Lynch of Nyssa with whom he resided in late years, died Saturday at the Ontario hospital after a long illness. Burial services were held in Ontario Sunday. Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Lynch, Mrs. Clay Blakely of Weiser, Mrs. W. J. Chiverell of Idaho Falls and Mrs. Frank Riggall of Arkansas and one son John Mead of Weiser. Mr. Mead had spent most of his life in this section.

WALTER MEAD, 80, DIES SATURDAY

Walter Mead, aged 80 years, father of Mrs. Frank Lynch of Nyssa with whom he resided in late years, died Saturday at the Ontario hospital after a long illness. Burial services were held in Ontario Sunday. Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Lynch, Mrs. Clay Blakely of Weiser, Mrs. W. J. Chiverell of Idaho Falls and Mrs. Frank Riggall of Arkansas and one son John Mead of Weiser. Mr. Mead had spent most of his life in this section.

WALTER MEAD, 80, DIES SATURDAY

Walter Mead, aged 80 years, father of Mrs. Frank Lynch of Nyssa with whom he resided in late years, died Saturday at the Ontario hospital after a long illness. Burial services were held in Ontario Sunday. Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Lynch, Mrs. Clay Blakely of Weiser, Mrs. W. J. Chiverell of Idaho Falls and Mrs. Frank Riggall of Arkansas and one son John Mead of Weiser. Mr. Mead had spent most of his life in this section.

WALTER MEAD, 80, DIES SATURDAY

Walter Mead, aged 80 years, father of Mrs. Frank Lynch of Nyssa with whom he resided in late years, died Saturday at the Ontario hospital after a long illness. Burial services were held in Ontario Sunday. Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Lynch, Mrs. Clay Blakely of Weiser, Mrs. W. J. Chiverell of Idaho Falls and Mrs. Frank Riggall of Arkansas and one son John Mead of Weiser. Mr. Mead had spent most of his life in this section.

WALTER MEAD, 80, DIES SATURDAY

Walter Mead, aged 80 years, father of Mrs. Frank Lynch of Nyssa with whom he resided in late years, died Saturday at the Ontario hospital after a long illness. Burial services were held in Ontario Sunday. Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Lynch, Mrs. Clay Blakely of Weiser, Mrs. W. J. Chiverell of Idaho Falls and Mrs. Frank Riggall of Arkansas and one son John Mead of Weiser. Mr. Mead had spent most of his life in this section.

BILL BOOR KILLS BULL WITH TOSS OF ROCK TUESDAY

With an aim as true as that of David when he slew Goliath, Bill Boor instantly killed a Jersey bull Tuesday with a small rock which struck the animal between the eyes. The bull was a valuable animal owned by C. H. Sargent of Fruitland. The unusual accident occurred when young Boor was attempting to drive the bull into a pasture. Boor's aim was too true for comfort.

MRS. SHORT BAGS HUNS

Few are the men who have bagged many of the fast-flying Hungarian partridges which are more elusive than the larger pheasant. To Mrs. C. B. Short goes the honor of bagging three Huns on the opening day Sunday. Mrs. Short is initiating a new gun this season.

JORDAN VALLEY STOCKMEN ELECT

DIRECTORS ARE NAMED FOR RECENTLY ORGANIZED GRAZING DISTRICT.

J. Edwin Johnson, county engineer, arrived in Jordan Valley Saturday in time for the election of directors of the recently organized Jordan Valley grazing district. He advised on return Monday that W. S. Bruce of Arook, Andrew Greeley of Rockville and Sam Ross of Jordan Valley were elected directors.

CIVIC CLUB MEETS

Routine business was disposed of at the October meeting of Nyssa civic club yesterday. For entertainment Miss Nettie Medesker's pupils in music presented the four numbers they gave at teachers' institute. Mrs. Ray Emmott's division served tea at the close.

BOY, 11, GETS BIRDS

As thrilled as their dads over the opening of the pheasant season Sunday were the boys who have been shooting rabbits and squirrels during the summer months to get in shape for real sport. A number of these young hunters were out at dawn Sunday. One of the youngest, Stanley Ray, aged 11, bagged two pheasants.

MINE INTERESTS ALFORD

Walter Alford is among the several Nyssa men who are keenly interested in mining. He has a claim 22 miles north of Tuscadero, Nev., where he spent most of the summer. He will return in the spring as he expects to find "big pay dirt." Alford has been showing his friends some good samples.

ROBINSON AT BONNEVILLE

Paul Robinson, publisher of The Gate City Journal several years ago, has established one of two newspapers at Bonneville, Wash., nearest town to Bonneville damsite. An embryo city is being built at that point. Robinson sent a copy of his booster sheet to the Journal last week.

LETTER ROLLS TO CITY MARKETS FROM EXCELLENT LOCAL CROP OF 70 ACRES

Car after car of lettuce is rolling to market from the Hunt packing house in Nyssa where Pieter Tensen and Mrs. Robert Gilchrist are directing the packing "in ice" of the bumper local crop consisting of around 70 acres scattered from here to Ontario. If the lettuce has one fault, it grew in husky heads a bit too large to suit the buyer for city trade who is accustomed to the "three for a dime" size.

QUINN-ROBBINS BID LOWEST ON GRAVEL CONTRACT

CANAL BIDS WILL FOLLOW BIDS ON GRAVEL PIT WORK WHICH WERE RECEIVED MONDAY.

Quinn-Robbins Construction Company of Boise submitted the lowest bid on the excavation of gravel and sand at Dunaway, for use on Owyhee project canals and structures, when bids were submitted on the work Monday by twelve contractors. R. B. Smith, clerk in the Owyhee office, reported that the Quinn-Robbins bid was $32,220. The following bids show a wide range:

Hart Construction Co., La Grande, $44,150. Triangle Construction Co., Boise, $43,350. Saxon and Looney Corvallis, $45,020. Ralph Davis, St. John, Wash., $46,930. Birkemeier and Sarem, Portland $48,400. General Construction Co., Seattle, $48,580. Albertson and Cornell, Tacoma, $50,200. Interstate Construction Co., Portland, $50,910. Joslin-McCallister, Spokane, $52,210. Home G. Johnson, Portland, $56,800. J. A. Terling and Son, Boise, $59,390.

WALTER MEAD, 80, DIES SATURDAY

Walter Mead, aged 80 years, father of Mrs. Frank Lynch of Nyssa with whom he resided in late years, died Saturday at the Ontario hospital after a long illness. Burial services were held in Ontario Sunday. Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Lynch, Mrs. Clay Blakely of Weiser, Mrs. W. J. Chiverell of Idaho Falls and Mrs. Frank Riggall of Arkansas and one son John Mead of Weiser. Mr. Mead had spent most of his life in this section.

HAY GROWERS SELL AT $7 AND $8 TON

Several Nyssa ranchers have reported sale of their hay at $7 per ton without sheds and $8 where sheds are furnished the shepmen. John Stringer has purchased a large amount of hay in this territory and Ralph Jones is buying other lots. Some hay has been contracted for "at the market price." Considerable hay has not been sold as yet.

ODD FELLOWS MEET GRAND MASTER HERE

Nyssa Odd Fellows and Rebekahs were delighted with good attendance at the lodge meeting held here Tuesday evening in compliment to George P. Winslow, of Tillamook, grand master of Oregon, and Albert Julian, deputy grand master. One delegation, headed by George Parks, made the long drive from Jordan Valley to attend. Others came from the Vale and Ontario lodges. A cafeteria lunch was served at the close of the evening.

LETTER ROLLS TO CITY MARKETS FROM EXCELLENT LOCAL CROP OF 70 ACRES

Car after car of lettuce is rolling to market from the Hunt packing house in Nyssa where Pieter Tensen and Mrs. Robert Gilchrist are directing the packing "in ice" of the bumper local crop consisting of around 70 acres scattered from here to Ontario. If the lettuce has one fault, it grew in husky heads a bit too large to suit the buyer for city trade who is accustomed to the "three for a dime" size.