Brakes Stop Your Wheels but... Will Your Tires Stop Your Car?

● Roads slippery and darker for more hours are more dangerous for smooth, thin tires—colder weather is more disagreeable for tire-changing—think of what's coming and put on new Goodyears now!

Bought now, tough new Goodyears give you safety all winter yet wear very slowly due to cool roads. Next spring they'll still be almost new. Today's prices—many sizes lower than a year ago—are another "buy now" reason. Come in and see us!

Reading Fun In Store

For Boys

World adventure thrills are in store for readers of THE AMERICAN BOY—YOUTH'S COMPANION, according to word just received from the editor of youth's favorite magazine. From the Arctic to the jungles of Haiti, and from the plateau of Asia to the lion country of Africa, the editors have charted a course of excitement and fun in the 12 issues of 1934.

Several years ago, THE AMERICAN BOY introduced to its readers the popular, black-haired Jimmie Rhodes, Army aviator. Those who followed his adventures through Brooks and Kelly Field, and with the 94th Pursuit on cross-country hops, target practice, and formation flying, will be delighted to learn that Jimmie Rhodes has returned to the magazine. The new series takes him to Haiti where a revolution is impending.

THE AMERICAN BOY—YOUTH'S COMPANION, filled with the adventure every boy craves, with the information he needs, and the advice on hobbies and sports he is always seeking, is the ideal present for that son, cousin, nephew, and chum. It's the kind of present that renews itself every month when the mailman lays a copy on the doorstep. Approved by teachers and educators, and endorsed by high schools of America, the magazine can solve your Christmas shopping difficulties.

The subscription price is $2.00 for one year. Until January 1, you may take out a three-year subscription for $3.00, a saving of $3.00 over the one-year rate for three years. After January 1, this three-year rate will be withdrawn. Mail your order direct to THE AMERICAN BOY—YOUTH'S COMPANION, 7430 Second Blvd., Detroit, Mich. Service on your subscription will start with the issue you specify.

FROM OUR READERS

The Gate City Journal has no more ardent reader than its owner Mrs. Winifred Brown Thomas who lives in Oakland, California. Wrote Mrs. Thomas last week: "We are thrilled over the appreciation for the I-O-N highway. Now, if they will just get it started so we can use it, it will be no trick at all to get from here to there in short order. Then for an air route between California and the Snake river valley. We firmly believe Malheur county is the coming land. Ten years will bring a great change, such progress that Nyssa can have a daily, perhaps."

"We want our Journal," said Mrs. Robt. Peck of Nyssa Friday. "Having spent several years at Owyhee dam, we feel like old timers and like to see what everyone is doing."

"Corn prices are better this year than last, so here's my renewal for another 52 weeks," said Jim Boor, Nyssa rancher Monday. Although farm prices aren't high, Mr. Boor is confident things will continue to improve—slow but sure.

Among others, The Journal welcomed the following renewals or new subscriptions during the week past: J. Stam, Jr.; O. R. Hite, John H. Forbes, Conrad Martin, Nyssa; Union Pacific, Salt Lake; Bank of Malheur, Vale; Leroy Harrod, Glendale, Calif.

OREGON TRAIL P-T-A

Oregon Trail Parent-Teacher association will meet November 17. Mrs. Olen Holmes and Mrs. Geo. McKee will report on the county council; Albert Hopkins will discuss "The School's Responsibility to the Child"; Mrs. Hopkins, "The Three R's vs. Training for Living. Music will be arranged and reports will be called from standing committees. Oregon Trail P-T-A reports a gain in membership. The ways and means committee, Mrs. McKee, Mrs. Franklin Fry and Mrs. J. C. Gray, is planning a series of card parties.

A member of the Nyssa relief committee will hold open house at the city hall every Friday afternoon.

Distinctly in a class by itself and possessing a story so appealing that it is impossible to predict anything but success for it, "Lady For A Day," the Columbia production starring Warren William with May Robson comes to the Liberty Theatre Tuesday-Wednesday-Thursday.

"Lady For A Day" is like a fantastic fairy tale, yet it is real and human. Its humor and dramatic scenes make the laughs and tears blend wholesomely. A revelation to picture audiences will be the magnificent performance of May Robson as "Apple Annie."
