Banks Builds A New City Like Model Owyhee

Like he did at Owyhee dam, Engineer F. A. Banks, formerly of Owyhee, will lay out a government city near the site of Grand Coulee dam in Washington. The new city will be somewhat larger than Owyhee, however, as several thousand men are expected to be working on that job by April, while Owyhee's peak in population was around 600 during the building of the dam.

Mr. Bank's planning may still be seen at Owyhee. He directed the planting of a Boulevard of beautiful trees which delight all comers in the summer season. He directed the building of modern homes which still remain, as well as a modern little school. The camp has modern water and lighting

Where Mr. Banks left off, Engineer R. J. Newell is directing the completion of the $18,000,000 Owyhee project. He is laying out a great distribution system which will irrigate over 100,000 acres of land, an empire in itself.

Crime Wave Is Rapped At Club Event In Adrian

Gangsters were placed "on the spot" and they might have been alarmed had any been present, or listening at the keyhole, at the meeting of Kingman Kolony book club Saturday at the home of Mrs. John Holly in Adrian. Such kidnappings as that of Brooke L. Hart, young man of Los Angeles, were discussed and an interesting article on "Racketeering, It's Cost to the American Home," was read by Mrs. Frank T. Morgan. The article was written by Mary Roberts Rinehart and appealed to women in particular to unite in defeating crime. Mrs. R. L. Haworth gave several numbers, among them the poem, "The House by the Side of the Road." Serious questions were then laid aside and a plate luncheon was served by the hostess with Mrs. Frank Miller assisting.

Club members recalled that three years ago their meeting in Adrian was marred by a severe snowstorm, in contrast to the mild weather which has continued throughout this autumn and late fall. Members came from the Kolony, Big Bend and Nyssa.

NEW CARD CLUB

A group of younger married women met at the home of Mrs. Warren Blodgett last Thursday for the purpose of organizing a club which will meet on Thursday twice monthly. Present members are Mrs. Bert Lienkaemper, Mrs. Ted Newell, Mrs. George Stacey, Mrs. Tom Burton, Mrs. Glen Frizzell, Mrs. Eldon Jensen and Mrs. Ernest McClure. A third table is contemplated. Mrs. Burton will entertain next Tuesday as Thursday falls on Thanksgiving. Mrs. Burton won first prize, Mrs. Jensen low.

MONDAY BRIDGE

Mrs. Farnham Sills entertained Monday bridge club with dessert and cards on Monday afternoon, the club having returned to afternoon for their meeting time. Mrs. Earl Harman played with members. Mrs. Howard Larsen and Mrs. W. F. McLaughlin won favors.

TEACHERS ENTERTAIN

Eastern Star ladies went back to school Monday evening at a kid party given for them by the Star teachers. Dressed in the mode of the gay nineties, the teachers held a spelling bee and all sorts of classes. They gave stars and various prizes for good work. A jolly evening closed with refreshments.

SHOWER AT ADRIAN

In compliment to Mrs. Wilbur Roberts who is moving from Adrian to Roswell, friends gave her a surprise handkerchief shower Wednesday at her home. Each guest took a covered dish.

Mr. Roberts is moving his family to a farm at Roswell. He has clerked in the Van Petten store at Adrian the past six years. Ted Newton of Ontario will succeed him.

POSTPONE P-T-A

Kingman Kolony P-T-A will be postponed until the second Friday in December when the Christmas seal program will be held.

TUESDAY BRIDGE

Mrs. Dean Smith entertained the Tuesday bridge club with three tables in play. Mrs. A. H. Boydell won first prize, Mrs. Frank Morgan, second. Mrs. Ray Emmott played with members.
