Festive Dinners Were Many On Thanksgiving

The Nyssa community, in diverse ways, gave thanks last Thursday. Throughout the land, tables groaned with turkey and all the fixings as old-fashioned family dinners were the order.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Powell gave their annual Thanksgiving dinner for Mrs. Mary Morris and son Tommy of Weiser, Susie and Leroy Daley of Weiser, the Theo Moore children of Ontario and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Powell, Mrs. Margaret Pashley and daughter Eleanor. Mrs. Theo Moore could not be present as she is ill in a Portland hospital. She is improving, however, so there was added cause for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Emmott and daughter were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cheley Boyer at their farm home in Arcadia.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Ray gave a turkey dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ray of Huntington, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Burbidge, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Starr, Mrs. Stella Butler and Mrs. Ray's parents Mr. and Mrs. Mark Robertson.

Mrs. S. D. Goshert and her daughter Mrs. Harry Sales prepared a feast for Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Eder of New Plymouth, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goshert and family of Emmett and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Klinkenberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Barr Doolittle were hosts at a family dinner for the Schweizers at their home. Numbered among 30 guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Householder of Caldwell, the Charles and Ocie Schweizer families of the Owyhee.

Mrs. Addie Wilson gave the traditional Thanksgiving dinner at her home Thursday.

Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Sarasin were hosts at their annual Thanksgiving dinner for Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Boydell and children, Mrs. J. Boydell and daughter Eva and son Blayney.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bertsch were hosts for a number of bachelor friends.

Several guests were entertained at the Russell Vinsonhale home, Coach John Young, Dick Young and Grant Rinehart being the visitors.

FIRST SNOW FALLS AT IRONSIDE FRI.

Ironside—The first snowfall of several inches covered this region Friday but a return of warmer weather reduced it within a few days.

Ralph Boor and wife moved some turkeys to Fruitland for fattening. They found Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Boor improving from recent injuries.

Earl Ripley of Harper spent Thanksgiving with his sister Mrs. Earl Lofton. Miss Kate Galligan of Unity visited with Mrs. Beam Wednesday. She accompanied her uncle John Rouse to Ironside.

A large crowd from here attended the wrestling match at Unity Thanksgiving night. Ralph Dern of Unity mixed with Jack King of La Grande. A dance followed.

The E. J. Beams were hosts at a Thanksgiving dinner for 21 friends and relatives.

Floyd White spent the holiday with his wife and daughter at Ontario.

Mrs. H. Van Cleave and daughter Betty Lou and Joe Van Cleave spent several days at the Beam home.

KOLONY STUDENTS GET HOT LUNCHES

Kingman Kolony—Hot lunches were started at school this week. All pupils seem enthusiastic even the eighth grade pupils who with Mrs. Schweizer prepare and serve the lunches. Donations of vegetables or soup bones are appreciated.

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Schweizer entertained at an eight o'clock buffet dinner followed by three tables of bridge. Prize for high score went to Mrs. Maurice Judd and consolation to William Gibson.

The D. C. Duvalls ate Thanksgiving dinner with the C. C. Cotton family and their guests Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Webb of Idaho.

Walter Bach who has been attending college at Gooding, stopped at the J. G. Lane home to visit his mother, and other relatives last week. His mother accompanied him to North Powder where they spent Thanksgiving with Rev. and Mrs. Bach.

The Conrad Martins were Thanksgiving guests at the C. M. Beaumonts. A hay chopper is busy in Kingman. At present it is at the Frank Hall ranch.

OREGON TRAIL WILL HOLD HEALTH MEET

Oregon Trail—The Trail P.-T. A. will meet Friday evening, December 8th at 8:15 p. m. As arrangements will be made for the Christmas program, all members and friends are urged to attend. A health program furnished by the county committee will be given under the supervision of Mrs. Franklin Fry and Mrs. Frank Byers.

The following pupils made the spelling honor roll in November.

3rd grade—Vivian Gray; 4th grade—Max Wicklander, Floyd Holady, Dewey Thomason; 5th grade—Lieta Franklin, Audrey Gray, Raymond Moritt; 7th grade—Bill Wilcox; 8th grade—Jack McKeel, Barclay Wilson, Floyd Wicklander.

Because students cannot play out of doors during cold weather, noon will be cut to thirty minutes and school dismissed at 3:30. This will allow the children to get home before dark as several have quite a distance to go. This program will start December 11.

HESPER LORRAINE FRAKES Obituary

There are stars that go out in the darkness. But whose silvery light shineth on. There are roses, whose perfume still lingers. When the blossoms are faded and gone. There are hearts full of light and sweetness. When no longer their life current flows. Still their goodness lives on with the living. Like the souls of the Star and the Rose.

Hesper Lorraine was born at Ontario December 28, 1918, and was called to her heavenly home November 23, 1933, at the age of 14 years. Hesper, who was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Frakes, was a sincere Christian girl and her beautiful faith, like the star her name signifies, seemed to shine the brightest when the night was darkest for her, and was reflected in all she said and did.

During her long illness her perfect faith, her cheerful disposition endeared her to all and was an outstanding example of a perfect christian life and the soft memory of her virtues lingers like twilight hues over the community.

Besides her father and mother Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Frakes, she leaves three brothers, Maurice, Loye and Rodney and one sister Inez.

Impressive funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the Nazarene church, the Rev. Ray Davis officiating. Schoolmates and friends were pall bearers.

Hesper was laid to rest by the side of her sister Willa who had preceded her in infancy.

—By Mrs. Mary Tharp, Payette, Ida.

Members of the Eagles lodge entertained wives, families and friends at the November social last Wednesday evening. Claud Willson gave a tap dance and Miss Claudena Crawford sang. Then followed a kangaroo court which ended in the conviction of Jake Fisher and Lloyd Marshall on a charge of disturbing the peace. Defense attorneys Art Norcott and Warren McHargue created a sensation when they produced evidence which indicated that the judge Rock Shelton was somewhat influenced by the prosecutor M. M. Williams. ### FREE AIR

Howdy Folks—Now here is exactly what the depression means—Aw heck let's go down to the corner and buy a bottle of beer—on you.

When Dean Smith read that congress had passed a "Blue Sky law," he said that "the weather was one thing that Congress couldn't regulate."

We may not be able to regulate the price of our FIRE-STONE BATTERIES. All price trends are up and it is our advice to you to buy now at a saving.

Why wouldn't it be a good idea to pass a law requiring a man who is divorced to give his ex-wife a letter of recommendation.

Says LOTTI GAS, "Greater love hath no man. He riseth in the morning and burneth his fingers on the electric toaster while she sleepeth in bed."

32 beer may not be intoxicating but we saw a party flirting with a wax figure in C. C. Anderson's window the other day.
