"BOWERY" IS COMING TO NYSSA, JAN. 2nd

Much as neighbors, friends and relatives assist at a housewarming by bringing gifts, so M-G-M, Paramount and Fox graciously came to the aid of the new 20th Century Pictures Company, which started out in life without stars and other accessories of picture making.

For "The Bowery," their initial production for release by United Artists, M-G-M offered the services of Wallace Berry and Jackie Cooper, the two stars of "The Champ." Paramount loaned George Raft, and Fox contributed its ace director, Raoul Walsh.

Wallace Berry is cast as the famous Chuck Connors, a saloon and honky-tonk proprietor and the most popular man on the Bowery. George Raft plays Steve Brodie, who was so jealous of Connors' popularity that he jumped off Brooklyn Bridge in a bid to out-rival Connors in fame. Jackie Cooper is the newswoman, Swipes, pal and protégé of Connors until a girl, played by Fay Wray, brings about a misunderstanding. Pert Kelton, who stole the show in "Bed of Roses," her first picture, plays a dance hall queen.

"The Bowery" was adapted by Estabrook and Gleason from the novel "Chuck Connors," by Michael L. Simmons and B. R. Solomon and is the attraction at the Liberty Theatre in Nyssa January 2, 3, 4.

Why Hospitals Use a Liquid Laxative

Hospitals and doctors have always used liquid laxatives. And the public is fast returning to laxatives in liquid form. Do you know the reasons?

The dose of a liquid laxative can be measured. The action can be controlled. It forms no habit; you need not take a "double dose" a day or two later. Nor will a mild liquid laxative irritate the kidneys.

The right liquid laxative brings a perfect movement, and there is no discomfort at the time, or after.

The wrong cathartic may keep you constipated as long as you keep on using it! And the habitual use of irritating salts, or of powerful drugs in the highly concentrated form of pills and tablets may prove injurious.

A week with a properly prepared liquid laxative like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will tell you a lot. A few weeks' time, and your bowels can be "as regular as clockwork." Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is an approved liquid laxative which all druggists keep ready for use. It makes an ideal family laxative; effective for all ages, and may be given the youngest child.
