UNUSUAL WINTER BRINGS ARCADIAN SURE SPRING FEVER

Arcadia—The calendar may indicate that this is winter time but the weather remains like spring. Out of season like the budding tulips, Arcadia and Valley View students played baseball Friday. Arcadia was the winner, 15 to 8. Both teams played close ball until the fourth inning when Flora Newton second baseman knocked a hot grounder and raced around the bases. Arcadia made six runs before retiring. Mrs. Joan McDonough of Ontario spent Monday at the Nick Smit home. Mrs. Cora Newton's mother Mrs. Smith is leaving today for her home in Buhl, Idaho. Last week Mrs. Newton gave a dinner in compliment to Mrs. Smith.

The Solon Miner family have moved from one of the K. S. and D. ranches to the Ray Amens house. They plan to move soon to Little Valley, between Vale and Harper.

Emil Johnson is improving. Evelyn Points has been ill of measles, her second attack this winter which is a bit unusual.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mull gave a turkey dinner Sunday for the Felton Dun-can family. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mull, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mull, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hipp and family and Harold Long.

MALHEUR TO BE FREE OF T. B.

A campaign is under way in Malheur county, under the direction of R. G. Larson, county agent, to modify accreditation the county as free from bovine tuberculosis. The testing of the dairy cattle herds is practically complete, Mr. Larson reports. Testing of beef cattle is to start immediately.
