BUCK JONES HERE

FRIDAY-SATURDAY

Buck Jones, the hardest-hitting, hardest-riding star of all, is back in town with his newest thrill-getting picture, "Unknown Valley," at the Liberty Theatre Friday-Saturday.

And, boy, what a thriller this one is! You remember Buck in "Hello, Trouble" and "The California Trail" don't you? Well, "Unknown Valley" is even better than those, if you can imagine that!

This time Buck is on the search for his father, a prospector, and the trail takes him to the Skeleton Mountains which are accessible only by crossing a desert which usually takes its death toll. He finds himself prisoner of a strange group who have cut themselves off from the rest of the world and who resent intrusion because of their unlimited gold supply.

MUSICAL PICTURE

OPENS IN CALDWELL

The American Theatre in Caldwell will present another Super De Luxe hit in "Flying Down to Rio," a musical par excellence. Too big for the world so they staged it in the clouds. See dance numbers staged on the wings of giant airplanes. Nothing like it ever witnessed before. See "The Carioca" the new dance that is driving America mad, these and many other stupendous spectacles, a glorious cast including Dolores Del Rio, Gene Raymond, Fred Astaire, (America's premier dance master) Ginger Rogers and 200 beautiful girls. Hear this superb musical on Idaho's only wide range high fidelity sound installation—This is the first picture made entirely on high fidelity Sound.—Adv.
