

Miss Cook And Miss Graham Marry Sunday

At a pretty wedding Sunday at St. Paul's Episcopal church, Miss Dorothy Cook of Nyssa became the bride of Walter K. Davis of Union. The church was decorated with baskets of roses. A large number of friends witnessed the ceremony.

The bride was charmingly gowned in white net with veil of tulle and carried a shower bouquet of rosebuds and sweet peas. Attendants were Misses Ethel Mary Boydell and Harriet Sarazin, who wore organdie frocks in pastel shades. Arthur Vernon Cook, brother of the bride, and Robert Johansen of Owyhee Dam.

The bride was given in marriage by her father A. V. Cook while Mrs. Cook was matron of honor and the youngest son Jimmy was ring bearer. Rev. Stanley Moore read the vows. Miss Lucile Biggs played Mendelssohn's Wedding March. It was all very pretty and impressive. Following the ceremony lunch was served at the Cook home for out of town guests. Mr. and Mrs. Davis left soon after for Payette lake where they will spend a week's honeymoon.

The older daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Cook, Dorothy was graduated from Nyssa high school in 1929. Two years later she received her diploma at Eastern Normal school in La Grande. The past three years she has taught at Union where the couple will reside. They have the good wishes of a wide circle of friends.

Davis of Union, Mrs. Ida Cooper, Mrs. Merrill Cooper and the Eldon Cooper family of Weiser, Mrs. Busick, sister of Mr. Davis, and the Merton Davis family of Union, Mrs. Mary Lyells, Mrs. C. The vows were read by Judge David F. Graham, uncle of the bride, at the court room in Vale. Miss Darlene Dunaway came from Portland for the event and she accompanied the young couple to Vale and to Owyhee dam for the afternoon. A wedding supper was enjoyed at the Graham home that evening.

The bride is a charming member of the younger set, having graduated with this year's class of Nyssa high school. She received the American Legion citizenship award. Young Lawrence operates a service station with his father. For the present the couple will reside at the Lawrence home.

CAN YOU TELL ME?

Why are you honest? Is it because "honesty is the best policy"? The truth of the time honored proverb is even doubted by many. The idea is quite prevalent that the best policy is to say the thing that will create the least friction or that will be to one's immediate advantage. The auctioneer's policy may be to praise up the goods to the best of his ability. Children have often been told to "be good or a big booger-man will get you."

The best policy for my neighbor, who would like to buy my horse, is to remind me of his numerous faults which may or may not be true. And, of course, the best policy for me would be not only to disprove all of my neighbor's objections but to show him that my horse is one of the best in the valley.

Well, I shall have to leave it to you as to what is the best policy—that really is not my subject. I must come back to those of you who are really honest. Do you think we should be governed very much by policy? I believe in being honest because I believe it is right. And there is a right and wrong about most things. Don't cater too much to policy.
