Miss Campbell Wed at Pretty Ceremony Sunday

A rose covered trellis formed the background for the pretty wedding at the W. G. Campbell home Sunday afternoon when Miss Gladys Campbell became the bride of Chester Sager, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Sager of Nyssa. The ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Floyd E. White.

Charmingly gowned in sky blue georgette, the bride carried a shower bouquet of Cecil Bruner roses and Madonna lilies. Her only attendant was her sister Miss Alta Campbell who wore pink organdie and carried pink carnations. Earl Sager was best man. Miss Dorothy Compton of Boise, cousin of the bride, played Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus. Misses Pauline and Ruth Wolfe sang "I Love You Truly," and "Bells of St. Marys." Refreshments were served at the close for the fifty guests attending.

The groom was graduated from Nyssa high school in 1931 and in 1933 attended the Nazarene College at Nampa. For the present the young couple will reside at the Campbell home.

Guests from out of town were sisters of Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Nora Compton and family of Boise and Mrs. Pearl Stanley and daughter Fern of Nampa. Claud Keisler of Boise, Misses Edna, Mamie and Nina Mahan of Parma. Mrs. Stanley and daughter remained for the week. Flowers for the trellis were from the J. T. Long and J. C. Beam gardens. Mrs. Bernard Frost assisted Mrs. Campbell in decorating.

COLLEGE FRIENDS HERE

Miss Grace Posey entertained College of Idaho friends at two tables of bridge on Thursday. Mrs. Kirby Roberts of Roswell won first prize, Mrs. Wilbur Roberts of Adrian, consolation.

MONDAY BRIDGE

Mrs. Ted Newell entertained Monday bridge club at a chicken luncheon and cards the forepart of the week. Tables were centered with roses. Mrs. Bernard Frost won first prize, Mrs. Farnham Sills, low. Guests were Mrs. Frost, Mrs. Dean Smith.

WEDDING DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Long gave a dinner Thursday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Barker who were recently married in Caldwell. The bride is their granddaughter and has been a frequent visitor in their home. Guests included Miss Helen Lackey of Ontario and the Dr. John Long family who are here from Salem.

FOR MRS. LAWRENCE

Members of the younger set enjoyed a shower in honor of Mrs. Ralph Lawrence, recent bride, at the Dean Smith home Thursday afternoon which was given by Miss Doris Smith and Miss Claudena Crawford. At the end of a treasure hunt the bride found many delightful gifts. Clever little prizes were given at the close of games and luncheon was served. Miss Darlene Dunaway of Portland was the only out of town guest.

SUPPER CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harman gave a delightful dinner party for the supper club on Sunday evening. Mrs. Wm. Schireman held high score, Mr. Harman second.
