

CAMERAGRAPHS

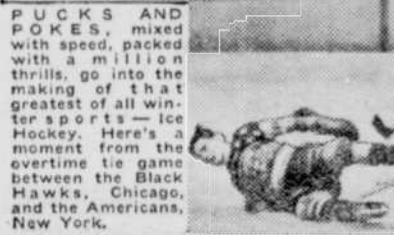

WORLD'S MOST FAMOUS FAMILY DOCTOR takes a holiday. Dr. A. R. Daise, family physician to the famed Dionne quintuplets, poses for a photo before leaving Northern Ontario for New York on his first vacation in 25 years.

LADY with the oversized lorgnette is Beatrice Lillie (Lady Peel in private life), whom critics have called "the world's funniest woman." This season the internationally famous comedienne will be heard in a regular series of radio programs for the first time. Beginning early in January, Miss Lillie will appear Friday nights over the NBC-WJZ Blue network, burlesquing the world's bores and bodes and deflating the "stuffed shirts" from every walk of life.

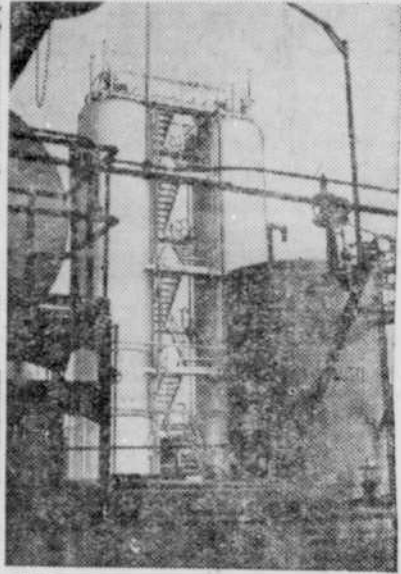

LUELLA GEAR, popular singing star of "Life Begins At 8:40," likes menthol-cooled cigarettes between acts and even sings a song about Spuds, her favorite, in the Broadway musical hit now making a long record run for this season.

WORTH FIGHTING FOR: The valuable coal mines, more than anything else, form the basis of the rivalry between France and Germany for possession of the Saar. A plebiscite in January will decide the issue. Photo shows a group of Saar miners at work.

PUCKS AND POKES, mixed with speed, packed with a million thrills, go into the making of that greatest of all winter sports—ice hockey. Here's a moment from the overtime tie game between the Black Hawks, Chicago, and the Americans, New York.

REVOLUTIONARY NEW WAY TO RE-FINE OIL: Here is a view of a new three million dollar refinery at Paulsboro, N. J. It is owned by Soccon-Vacuum Oil Company who recently announced a revolutionary new way to refine oil known as the Clearol process which "washes" oil clean of natural impurities. Mobilil Arctic made by the new process, is expected to save millions of dollars for the motorist in lessened repair bills and oil consumption.
