

Bridal Shower Given Thursday For Mrs. Ward

One of the nicest affairs of this season was the miscellaneous bridal shower given Thursday afternoon for Mrs. Frank Ward at the home of her mother Mrs. Addie Wilson. The occasion also honored their first wedding anniversary as the couple were secretly married a year ago Thursday in Twin Falls. About 32 women were present and the bride received many useful and lovely gifts. To close the afternoon a covered dish luncheon was served.

Norcott were low score winners. Mrs. W. H. King of Pendleton and Mrs. H. G. Humphrey of Yakima were out of town guests.

MASON AND STAR PARTY

After their regular meetings the members of the Eastern Star lodge entertained with a nice social for the Masons and their wives and the Stars and their husbands. Games and refreshments were enjoyed. The committee in charge of arrangements was Mrs. Bernard Frost, Mrs. Dick Young, Mrs. Nettie and Miss Hettie Medesker and Mrs. Leo Hollenberg.

MONDAY BRIDGE

Mrs. Ray Emmott was hostess to Monday Bridge club this week. Mrs. Ernest Wilson and Mrs. Sid Burbridge, guests who played with members, were winners of the first and low prizes.

JOLLY JAMES

Misses Deana and Doris Smith were hostesses to the Jolly James Bridge club Monday night. Miss Claudina Crawford won high score and Mrs. Max Schweizer won low. A nice lunch was served at the close.

SURPRISE PARTY

A surprise party was given for Mrs. John Bowen at Oregon Trail last Saturday evening. Pinochle was played. High score for men and women went to Mr. and Mrs. John Bowen. Consolation prizes went to Mrs. Albert Hopkins and Frank Byers. A big time was reported. Refreshments were served.

PINOCHLE PARTY

Friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Holmes of Oregon Trail Thursday evening to play pinochle. Prizes for high score went to Mrs. John Bowen and Albert Hopkins. Consolation prizes were given to Gladys Byers and Glen Holmes. Refreshments were served and a good time was enjoyed.

AUXILIARY PLANS PARTIES

At the last meeting of the Legion Auxiliary it was decided to give a series of benefit card parties. The date of the first one will be decided later, but they will probably start next week. It was also decided to purchase a picture for the new school house.

After the business meeting, the Legion and Auxiliary enjoyed their usual social hour together. Mrs. A. V. Cook, Mrs. C. L. McCoy and Mrs. Archie Howell were in charge of refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McKee spent Tuesday in Marsing visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry Merchant.

OWYHEE FARMERS MODERNIZE HOMES

Owyhee—Oral Hite and Rudolf Hite have modernized their homes by piping water to them and installing bathroom and full plumbing fixtures. Rudolf Hite has also finished the building of a fine new shed to accommodate the Dave Jenkins sheep.

Charles Bradley is building a new barn.

Mrs. John Cantrall came from Montour, Ida., to attend the funeral of J. P. McGinnis and to visit her sisters Mrs. Jane McGinnis and Mrs. Rudolf Hite. Glen McGinnis was called from Portland and arrived Sunday night. He was on a ten days vacation from work for M-K and had gone down on Saturday. Vernon McGinnis and Mrs. Joe Wistos of Alturas, Cal., also came for their father's funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Schweizer and daughter Betty and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Klingback and daughters Margaret and Louise attended court in Vale Friday.

Marian Wicklander is staying at the Henry Truelson home while attending the Owyhee school.

Gerald Rust caught two lynx on Mitchell Butte last week.

Max and Houston Dunaway are spending the month of January in Portland at the parental J. P. Dunaway home.

There will be a basket social and a program by local talent at the schoolhouse on February 1st, at eight o'clock. The P.-T. A. is in charge. The proceeds will be used in the purchase of a new kitchen range for the basement of the school.

Mrs. Fred Klingback was hostess to the Owyhee community club last Thursday afternoon. A nice crowd was in attendance. Election of officers was postponed until the February meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. Peutz. A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess. Mrs. James Abbot came from McCall for the funeral of her uncle, J. P. McGinnis.

There is still much illness in the community. Mrs. Neal Dimmick has been quite ill. Mrs. Howard Connaughty is ill with flu. Morgan Rust has the measles; Phyllis Rust is ill. Donald Plaza has been absent from school on account of illness. Mrs. Ellis Walters has just recovered from several days illness. Albert Rust came home Sunday after spending two weeks in the hospital and several days convalescing at the Wm. Peutz home.

C. A. Cox purchased two fine teams of horses last week in preparation for spring work on his new farm.

APPLE VALLEY NEWS

Apple Valley folks are victims of an epidemic of colds and flu. J. A. Pettit is improving steadily but will have to remain in bed for some time.
