

OREGON TRAIL P-T. A. ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

The new officers of the Oregon Trail P-T. A. are Mrs. Albert Hopkins, president; Mrs. Lucille Johnson, vice president; Annie Holmes, pianist; and Mrs. Frank Byers, secretary and treasurer. Standing committees named by the president are: program, Mrs. Glen Holmes and Mrs. John Bowen; membership, Mrs. Franklin Fry and Mrs. Floyd Campbell; ways and means, Albert Hopkins and Franklin Fry; hospitality, Mrs. George McKee and Mrs. William DeGroff; literature and child welfare, Mrs. J. B. Smith.

At the regular monthly meeting Friday, May 10 a large crowd was present. Social meetings for the summer were planned. Hospitality committee will have charge during the summer months. Committees were named for the summer round-up.

Dechmatory and spelling winners were presented with gifts from the P-T. A. and school. Those pupils were Gilbert Holmes, Dewey Thompson, Ione Bensen and Frankie Wilson. The ways and means committee presented Gilbert Holmes with a gift for selling the largest number of tickets for their play.

The P-T. A. voted the ways and means committee the outstanding committee for the year and gifts were presented to Mrs. Glen Holmes and Mrs. Lucille Johnson.

The ways and means chose sides and staged a contest to see who could get the most donation patches on their aprons. Mrs. Glen Holmes' side won. Aprons were auctioned to the highest bidders.
