

Kingman Book Club Host At Dads' Picnic

Kingman Colony book club gave its annual Dads' day picnic at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Moore at Mitchell Butte Sunday with 57 present. Husbands of members were honored guests. A program of poetry and talks varied in theme was enjoyed after a bountiful picnic dinner on the lawn. Several husbands gave impromptu talks. Six communities were represented by the guests: Owyhee, Mr. and Mrs. John Wall, John Bigelow and the Lowes; Nyssa, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Dunaway and son Max, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Morgan; Ontario, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce R. Kester; Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. Arden A. Reed; Big Bend, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Peck, the Ralph Haworth, Joe Bruning and E. H. Brumbach families; Adrian, H. R. Otis.

PICNIC AT BONITA

To show Nyssa folk the rare and beautiful wild flowers that make the Bonita section famous at this season, Mr. and Mrs. John Lewellen invited a party from here to a picnic Sunday. Hillsides were a riot of color with pink and white phlox, lilies, iris, bitter root and more common wild flowers blooming in profusion. At 2 o'clock a delicious picnic was served in a grove near Cow creek. Those present were Mrs. C. Klinkenberg and son Gilbert, Mrs. J. Dennis, Miss Thelma Leuck, Mrs. Arvilla Faucher, Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Abbott of Nyssa, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Roberts of Parma.

STUDY CLUB MEETS AT OWYHEE
Tuesday members of the recently organized Nyssa Study club motored to Owyhee dam to meet at the home of Mrs. F. A. Banks. Mrs. Frank T. Morgan gave an interesting paper on Russia. Those present were Mrs. C. C. Hunt and daughter Lily May, Mrs. O. G. Boden, Mrs. Fred Schlapkohl, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Dick Tensen, Mrs. J. P. Dunaway of Nyssa, Mrs. R. B. Smith and Mrs. C. A. Betts of the Owyhee dam and Mrs. Cantrill, mother of Mrs. Betts, who is here from Portland.

WARREN FAMILY GATHER
There was almost a reunion of the Warren family at the parental P. M. Warren home in Nyssa Sunday. Covers were laid for 18 dinner guests. Visitors were Roy Warren and family of Rupert, Ida, Larue Haley of Huntington, Roy Haley and family of Big Bend and Mrs. Mary Warren, student nurse at the Ontario hospital. Shortly after dinner, the Simpson and Kirk families of Caldwell found the party.

GUILD BENEFIT PARTY
Yellow roses, at their prettiest now, decorated the Parish house Wednesday for a benefit bridge for the Episcopal Guild. Five tables were arranged for cards. Prize winners were Mrs. H. A. Diven, first; Mrs. Dean Smith, second; Mrs. Earl Ward, consolation. Hostesses were Mrs. Dick Tensen, chairman; Mrs. J. J. Sarazin, Mrs. A. H. Boydell, Mrs. Frank Hall.

METHODISTS PLAN DINNER
The Methodist board, in session Tuesday night at the R. A. Thompson home, discussed means of raising a $500 budget between now and August. This amount will close the church year successfully. The ladies decided to raise funds by giving a dinner some time in June.

GIRL SCOUTS PLAN TEA
Nyssa girl scouts plan a vanishing tea for June. "The girls hope everyone receiving an invitation will carry out the idea as the troop is desirous of paying off its indebtedness. Girl Scouts will be glad to serve for all hostesses," said Miss Betty Tensen, lieutenant in charge of the troop.

SCOUTS TAKE HIKE
Second class girl scouts directed by Margaret Pinkerton went on a hike and weiner roast Thursday night at the Fisher ranch. They had a jolly time. Scouts making the trip were Isabel Sarazin, Nellie Jean Schweizer, Pauline Fogle, Flora Mae Wimp, Thelma and Frances Allen, Katie Hendricks, Charlene Crawford, Emma Lou Hanks.

W. C. T. U. ELECTION NEAR
Election of a president will be discussed at an important meeting of the W. C. T. U. at the home of Mrs. Leon Higby Tuesday, June 2. All members are urged to attend.

TUESDAY CLUB CLOSING
Tuesday evening bridge club met for the last time this season at the home of Mrs. Howard Larsen. All members were present. Prize winners were Mrs. Frank T. Morgan, first; Mrs. Barney Wilson, second.

OREGON TRAIL P-T. A.
Oregon Trail P-T. A. elected Franklin C. Fry its first man president. Mrs. F. G. Holmes is vice president, Elizabeth Van Zelf, secretary-treasurer. The organization meets every third Friday at the Oregon Trail school.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Barker moved from their living apartment in the rear of the Owyhee Barber and Beauty shop to the Percival residence Saturday.

WIND RETARDS FIRST APPLE VALLEY SPRAY

Apple Valley—Recent wind made it impossible to apply the first cover spray on Apple Valley orchards by May 24. An investigation discloses that the May frost did little damage to fruit. Mr. and Mrs. Higgins went to Meridian last week to attend the graduation of their grandson.

T. H. Kavanagh and J. H. Finley of Lynden, Wash., and two friends stopped here Wednesday to see old acquaintances Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Summy. After driving through drouth-seared Montana and striking a blizzard near Salmon, Idaho, they were delighted with Boise Valley and Eastern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. McDonald were in Caldwell to see an eye specialist last week, remaining overnight with their daughter Mrs. Alfred Quast. After finding the body of Mrs. C. M. Beaumont near his island home, Chesler Gray assisted officials in many ways. He fords the river daily, so drove the hearse across Saturday night without difficulty.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Van Landingham left Sunday for Bend to visit her sister Mrs. Hunt. They will go on to Bremerton, Wash., to see Mr. Landingham's mother.

Harold Glennon returned Saturday from Kuna.

Donald Warrantis underwent an operation for appendicitis at Caldwell Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mackey left Sunday for Hagerman where Mackey works for the Idaho Power company. They had been visiting her parents—Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hobbs.

Miss Leah Dunnigan took the Keith children to their mother in Boise Friday. They lived with their grandparents here the past two years.

ARCADIA TEACHER NAMES HONOR ROLL

Arcadia—Mrs. S. L. Hardy, teacher here last term, sent a list of Arcadia honor students for publication in The Journal. Norman Hipp, Reba Marsh, Marie Snow and Iola Mull were on the honor roll for the entire year. Iola and Ethel Mull were neither absent nor tardy. For good citizenship, the following were voted to stand supreme: Harold Dale, Retha Marsh, first; Iola Mull, second; Velma Mull and Ruby Mahan, third. Winners of first place will receive a young people's magazine. Mrs. Hardy is in Ashland.

Sports furnished diversion at the recent school picnic. In the novel suitcase race, Otis Bullard and Ray Amens were winners. Charlie Overstreet took the 100-yard dash. The younger generation defeated the married men in a baseball game. It is true Doc Abbott made three scores but he wore a shiner and was said to be limping the following day. The married men tried to act as young and energetic as they used to be but their families tell a different story the day after. The school board closed the picnic by a generous serving of ice cream.

The Newton family left Monday for Buhl to spend a month. The oldest boy is looking after the farm.

Wind interrupted first haying. It has also been hard on the fruit. Some orchardists say no thinning will be necessary this spring.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Long had their granddaughters from Ontario as their guests last week.

Mrs. John Marsh is feeling much improved after a severe illness.

Mrs. Elsie Abbott, primary teacher.
