Aden Wilson Wins Quilt at Auxiliary Benefit Party

A fair sized crowd attended the Eagles Auxiliary benefit card party Friday night in the Eagles hall with bridge, pinochle and bunco being in play. Mrs. Klaus Tensen was awarded high for women in bridge and Dick Adams high for the men. In pinochle, Mrs. Berwyn Burke won high and Lloyd Marshall won high for men. Myra Clendening was the prize winner for women in bunco and Hugh Glasgow high for men. Aden Wilson won the Eagles Auxiliary quilt.

SURPRISE PARTY

Friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. Rolland Holmes of Oregon Trail Friday evening honoring their birthday. Three tables of pinochle was in play. High prize for women went to Mrs. John Bowen and high prize for men was won by Glen Holmes. Mrs. Chan Warner and Albert Hopkins received consolation prizes. Ice cream and cake was served. A big time was reported by everyone.

MONDAY BRIDGE

Mrs. Howard Larsen entertained Monday bridge club at her home this week. Mrs. Dick Adams won first prize and Mrs. Dick Young won low. Guests were Mrs. Charles Paradis, Mrs. Dean Smith and Mrs. Ernest Wilson.

GIRL SCOUTS PARTY

The Girl Scouts gave a party Monday night at the Dick Tensen home in honor of their Captain Miss Margaret Young, who will be leaving soon for her home in Madras for the summer. A short business session was held at which time Marzene Hollenberg was elected treasurer and Louise Tensen was elected secretary. The Scouts are planning a show to raise money for a camping trip this summer. The next meeting will be held Tuesday, June 4 at the Tensen home. A very pleasant evening was brought to a close with nice refreshments.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mrs. Cora Newton entertained Tuesday with a dinner at her country home honoring the birthday of Mrs. Arvilla Fauchier. A lovely birthday cake formed a centerpiece for the festive table. Guests were Mrs. Mary Felton, Mrs. Emma Duncan, Mrs. Floyd White, Mrs. Jess Spencer, Mrs. Florence Meyers, Mrs. R. A. Austin, Mrs. C. A. Abbott and Mrs. Fauchier.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Helen Boydell entertained eight friends with a bunco party Friday afternoon honoring her 12th birthday. Peggy Bills won the prize. The usual nice birthday lunch was enjoyed.

CHAIN PARTIES

The chain party fad continued quite brisk the first of the week, but the last of the last of the week brought a noticeable lull. Mrs. Klaus Tensen and Mrs. Nick Rudlick entertained Monday with two tables of bridge. Mrs. Dick Tensen won the prize.

Mrs. Art Servoss and Mrs. Aden Wilson entertained with Mrs. Ralph Lawrence winning high score. On Mrs. Robert Stringfellow and Mrs. Cliff Tillman were hostess at a chain party with Miss Lotta Phillips winning the prize.

HIS GUARDIAN

PROPER foods, ample sleep... these are very important to baby's health. But don't let protection stop there. Wise mothers depend upon the Rexall Drug Store for many things that baby needs—castor oil, mineral oil, cod liver oil, harmless baby soaps, talcum and creams... and many other items so essential to baby's health and happiness.

POSTAGE STAMP ILLUSTRATOR: When President Roosevelt and Postmaster General "Jim" Farley sat down to choose the ten greatest American natural wonder pictures as illustrations for the national park series of postage stamps they selected the Great White Throne, towering master of Zion National Park, as one of them. Its gleaming white precipices defy venturesome climbers; its plateau-like top untrod by man. Zion National Park in southern Utah is a summer mecca for tourists from all over the world. SEVERAL MALHEUR COUPLES MARRIED LAST WEEK

Several marriage licenses were issued to Malheur county couples the past week that are of interest to local readers. In Boise Friday a license was issued to Linden Eli Harris, Vale, and Clella Betty Russell, Vale. The groom is the assistant county agent, stationed at Vale, where the young couple will make their home. He is well known here as he spends one day a week here on business pertaining to the county agent's office. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Russell of Vale and taught school at White Settlement the past term.

William J. Cole, Brogan, and Dorothy Moore, Durkee, Oregon, were issued a license at Payette May 18. William Harvey Jones of Juntura and Cassie May Becker of Juntura were also issued a marriage license May 18 at Payette.

COUNTY CLUB LEADER AND ALBERT HOPKINS VISIT OREGON TRAIL CALF CLUB

E. M. Hauser, county club leader and Albert Hopkins, Oregon Trail local club leader, visited members of the Oregon Trail calf 4-H Club Tuesday examining calfs and record books. The outstanding club boy will be selected from the following: Raymond Morfitt, Gilbert Holmes, Dewey Thomason, Junior DeGroff, Frank Wilson and Hollis DeGroff. The boy selected will attend the 4-H club summer school at the Oregon State college, June 9. The Oregon Trail P-T. A. will pay expenses and tuition. Selection will be based on interest, record books, care of calf, and general activities. Mr. Hauser thinks the selection will be hard to make as calves are in fine condition and all boys have been working hard.

GIRLS CANVASS TOWN FOR BIBLE SCHOOL CENSUS

Misses Crete Marie Foster, Ruth and Pauline Wolfe were canvassing the town this week in the interest of the coming Daily Vacation Bible School which will open next Monday, and to check up on the church affiliations of the residents of Nyssa.
