

ROCKVILLE SCHOOL DISTRICT HOLDS ANNUAL ELECTION

Rockville—The yearly school meeting was held the first of the week. Andrew Greeley and Mrs. Elaine McKenzie were elected directors.

Mrs. Lee Strode visited Mrs. Maude Greeley Friday. Many of the Rockville folks plan to attend the Fourth of July celebration in Vale. George Greeley and son Larry were visitors at Andrew Greeley's Monday. Several truck loads of lambs have been shipped from this vicinity the past week. Mrs. Nora Wise and children were dinner guests at Mrs. Maud Greeley's on Monday. Mrs. D. H. Haylett who has been quite ill with spotted fever is improving rapidly. Olin Nichols, who suffered from a sprained arm is much better and has returned to his work on Mahogany mountain. Miss Janet McKenzie and her brother Stewart McKenzie attended the dance at Jordan Valley Saturday. Mr. Chandler, the construction engineer from McDermitt passed through Rockville en route to the lower country the first of the week.

DEAN JOHNSTON MAKES GOOD AS PITCHER AT OREGON STATE
Oregon State College, Corvallis.—Dean McCauley Johnston, former Nyssa athlete, has received freshman baseball numerals for the past season as ace hurler on the 1935 team here. Johnston was neck and shoulders ahead of every other pitcher on the squad. He completely outclassed any chucker seen here on a yearling team in many years. Every game he pitched approached a one-man show with Johnston holding the spotlight. The opposition batters were completely bewildered when the Nyssa knuckler began bearing down. It was due to the spectacular pitching of Johnston that the rocks ended so successful a season with a three game win over the University of Oregon fresh in the annual four-game series between the two yearling aggregations. Railbirds consider the Nyssa curve artist as the outstanding pitching prospect to turn up here in a number of years. He promises to develop into one of the best twirlers ever to play for the Orangemen.

Using Honey
By Mrs. W. W. Foster

Most sugar must be broken down into simple sugars by digestion before they can be assimilated. The simple sugars resulting are identical with those occurring naturally in honey. For this reason honey requires practically no digestion. It is almost wholly available for immediate absorption into the body. This is one reason why it is recognized as a valuable food for babies and growing children. Honey makes delicious and wholesome ice cream for the freezer or the electric refrigerator. No flavoring is required.

RECIPES
Honey and Strawberry Ice Cream
Mash 3-4 cups of strawberries, add 1/4 cup of honey and let stand. Stir in 1/2 cup of sugar, add 1 tablespoon of lemon juice, 1 cup of cream and freeze.

Honey Ice Cream
1/2 cup Honey, 4 egg yolks, 3-4 cup milk, 1/4 cup cream, pinch of salt. Heat the milk in a double boiler. Blend the honey and egg yolks; add the hot milk and cook until mixture thickens. Cool, add cream and freeze.

Warms 2 quarts of milk. Add 1 cup honey and 1/2 cup sugar and 3 well beaten eggs. Stir in 3 Junket tablets dissolved in a little water. Put aside to set then cool. Add 3 cups of cream and freeze.

A ROMAN EMPEROR'S N. R. A.
Maybe there isn't anything new under the sun, after all. Glenn Frank, president of the University of Wisconsin, tells us... "that Diocletian, the Roman emperor who began his rule in 284 A. D., fiddled around with the national currency and used bi-metalism long before Mr. Bryan ever thought of it. Diocletian fixed commodity prices like a real code authority, regulated Roman wages, had one-third of the Italian vineyards plowed under, started a huge public works program, and soaked the rich with heavy taxes."

In Some Cases
The teacher was explaining to her class what was meant by "bigamy."
"It means," she said, "having two wives at one time. Now, can any boy tell me what word means having only one wife?"

Some Baby!
Old Doctor Brown, the physician in a little town, was an enthusiastic fisherman. He was summoned from one of his angling expeditions to give his services in a maternity case. The proud father wanted to weigh the baby, but had no scales in the house. So he borrowed the steelyard with which Doctor Brown weighed his fish. "Great Scott, doctor!" he exclaimed. "Sixteen pounds."

TIRE BLOWOUT CAUSES DEATH OF BURNS WOMAN

A blowout of a rear tire was given as the reason for an auto accident last Wednesday that brought death to Mrs. Julia Traugott, 49, operator of a beauty parlor in Burns. The accident happened 30 miles west of Vale when Mrs. Traugott and Mrs. L. A. Upham were driving to Boise. Mrs. Upham escaped injury but Traugott's skull was fractured when she was pinned beneath the auto and she died almost instantly.

BROTHERS MEET AFTER TWENTY-EIGHT YEARS

G. E. Bertsch was surprised to say the least when his brother Ed. Bertsch of Brookings, South Dakota, stepped into the shop a week ago Thursday and he failed to recognize him. Last Wednesday he and his son-in-law stopped over night on their return trip from Redmond, and had a nice visit with the other members of the family who reside in Nyssa. Ed. Bertsch is three years younger than G. E. Bertsch and has been in the garage business in Brookings for many years. On their way over the Bear Pass they plunged down a 180-foot embankment to the brink of the river and lived to tell the tale and drive their same Ford V-8 sedan back with but one dent in the front fender to prove the disaster. The last time the brothers met was at their fathers funeral in Mitchell, S. D.

ICE CREAM SOCIAL SUCCESS

The ice cream social held at the Blackman building Saturday by the ladies of the W. C. T. U. netted $10.90 besides several dollars free will donations. This will help pay their budget to the National, where it will be used to carry out the 5-pointed educational program thru-out the nation. Mrs. Elizabeth Wade will give a talk on "Conditions in Canada" at the next meeting at the C. A. Abbott home with Mrs. Higby as hostess.
