The Gate City Journal

YOUR HOME NEWSPAPER

Nothing you read in the public print is so close to your heart as the hometown newspaper. It tells you each week about your friends, relatives, acquaintances. Many times their comings and goings are of small moment but to you and me—closely associated with them now or in earlier days—they mean a lot in helping us to enjoy life, which, after all, is measured largely by our contacts with our fellowmen.

Also the home-town newspaper — The Gate City Journal — keeps you informed about myriad other happenings of importance, including reports of clubs, womens' organizations, local sports, church affairs, county and city governmental affairs, farming problems—these and many other topics are covered each week.

Is your subscription paid in full or is it in arrears? The Journal costs less than three cents a week—and you can help us by attending to that $1.50 when it comes due.

The Journal is interested in problems of community well-being and you can help by writing your ideas and sending them to our Forum column. We are always glad to give space to discussions of community problems, the only restriction being that they not be personal and that they are signed.

ALSO, TO MERCHANTS

Your Advertisement

—is in mighty good company when in the Journal advertising columns. In this manner you can keep your stores' merchandising message in the home each week at small cost. Our advertisers have found the Journal an ideal method of telling of a new line of goods, a special service or bargain, the merchandise they sell or the service they perform. Our classified column, too, is a real little Market Finder, with big results at small costs.
