TIRE SALESMAN HURT IN WRECK AT JORDAN VALLEY

Jordan Valley—Mr. Gene Fisher, salesman for the Sieberling Tire Co. was seriously injured last week when his car collided with a car from the Construction camp. The accident happened near the D. S. MacKenzie ranch on Sucoor Creek. Mr. Fisher was taken to the railroad for hospital treatment and his car was brought into town. Art Worthington took the car out to Boise last Tuesday.

Neal Shea and Tom Skinner moved Tom and Bill Johnson's cattle from the Shea place down to Tom's ranch this week. Jim McCain and Chas. Burns have left town on business. Mr. McCain went to Vale and Mr. Burns to Caldwell.

J. V. A. Carter has sold his ranch on Jordan Creek to Mrs. Wroten. Mr. Carter plans to buy another stock ranch in this vicinity.

Joe Yturra made a trip to Ontario last Tuesday to return with a load of fuel oil.

Many of the sheep men are moving their herds to the winter. Blas Telleria started his herd this week.

Tom O'Keefe has gone to Boise to apply for his citizenship papers.

Tom came here from Ireland about seven years ago.

The Basque ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Jose Elguren to celebrate her wedding anniversary, last Sunday evening. It has been their custom to have a party on the 25th anniversary. However, Mrs. Elguren was not here at that time so the ladies took this opportunity to entertain her. Each woman took a part of the lunch. Mrs. Elguren received some silverware and other gifts, and the party was much enjoyed by all present.

Sam Ross purchased a new Ford truck and a Chrysler 8 sedan. He went to Caldwell and returned with the sedan last Saturday.

Henry Lambert has sold most of his horses and is trying now to sell all of his cattle. He plans to move to British Columbia if he can dispose of his property here.

Two CCC boys are in Jordan again. They are here to help Mr. Wilson, who is the camp guard. These two men will remain a few days. Mr. Wilson plans to be here until Christmas.

Jenero Rementeria bought a new International truck from George Parks. Mr. Rementeria has an agreement with Dunn and Baker, contractors, to haul the gas and Diesel oil for the road construction work at Rome. Many of the local people have begun working on the road project. It is now possible to register for this work at Jordan Valley. All the local carpenters are working there now. Domingo Elguren and Damaso Elordi have been given work there and Chas. Fisk and Gaynor Looney, who came to Jordan last Sunday are going to work on the road work soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Worthington are back in Jordan Valley again. Art is the mechanic at the Jordan Valley garage.

S. K. Skinner and Pearl Duncan sold their steers to Frank Grice. The drive left Jordan Saturday morning. Pearl Duncan, Leonard Duncan and John Morgan took them out.

Marion Wroten bought the hay on the Carter ranch on Jordan creek.

ARCADIA

Archie Teeples of Payette was a caller at the Chas. Bullard home Sunday evening.

Lloyd Orris and George Riggin are busy hauling wood from Unity this week.

Otis Bullard and children were callers at the Al Bohy home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bullard were overnight guests of their daughter Mrs. John Carr at Weiser Thursday. Mrs. Al Bohy, Mrs. Lloyd Orris, Mrs. Vernon Richard and Mrs. Jacob Zittercof went to Weiser Thursday. Mrs. John Vanderpool and children returned home Tuesday after spending a week with her father Mr. Browning at Payette.
