INDEPENDENT IN POLITICS AND RELIGION, OPTIMISTIC IN DISPOSITION—WITH NO INTERESTS TO SERVE EXCEPT THOSE OF MALHEUR COUNTY.

BOUQUETS FOR LEGISLATORS

The legislators who put over the sentiment of the people in their demand that the new Oregon state capitol building be constructed on the old site, are to be congratulated. There were plenty of interest who were anxious to have an opportunity of spending the taxpayers money in large quantities; but the legislature proved that there were business heads among them who knew the thing to do is to live within ones means, be it public or private business.

It might be a fine thing to have a capitol built on 40 acres or 100 acres, with all its surrounding scenic effects; but after all the government of Oregon is a business and requires a business building, financed on a business basis. Taxpayers should be pleased that our representatives are out to save the public money and cannot be high pressured into getting something we can't afford.

A CHANCE TO HELP

The settlement of the new lands about Nyssa, Ontario and Vale is of primary importance to every citizen of this part of Oregon and Idaho. Before we can start counting an increased valuation of the county, we must have producing settlers on the new lands, using the potential fertility and productiveness of the soil. Up to date there has been approximately 25,000 acres of the new land sold and most of it is getting under cultivation.

During 1936 will see an additional 35,000 acres of good farm and put under the ditch. This land must be sold and every citizen should help. The Vale-Owyhee Land Settlement Association is working diligently on the problem. They are sending out thousands of pieces of literature, advertising in dozens of papers, writing countless letters; and they are getting settlers, but at the present pace, not enough to settle the 35,000 acres this next year.

Here is where you can help. Practically every person living in Malheur county has contacts with friends and relatives at other places. Think through your list of acquaintances and it is likely you will find several who would be interested in securing land on the Owyhee project. Write them a letter, telling of the fine country we have here and give their names to Mr. Morgan so he can furnish them with the details of the Vale-Owyhee Land Settlement plan.
