

BEND SCHOOL OBSERVES "GOOD BOOK WEEK"

Big Bend—The past week members of Mrs. Schweizers room celebrated "Good Book Week" making interesting posters in art and organized a Childrens Book League under the supervision of the State Library. Each child gave a book review on some book they had read in English period.

A new shipment of books was received from the County Library. A new set of dictionaries was also received. Wednesday, November 27 the pupils of Wade school will give a Thanksgiving and Good Book program.

Wade school has helped the Red Cross roll by each room joining as a room.

The members of the upper room joined the Four-H Health club, linked up with the new health book. One of the first projects was to send a sample of the school water to the State Board of Health to have it analyzed.

For Thanksgiving the Fourth grade in Miss Mary Weir's room made a sand table of the Pilgrims in America. The third grade have been reading about the Pilgrims and are making a poster illustrating the story of their coming to America.

Two days vacation this week will be enjoyed by the pupils of both districts.

Mrs. B. G. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Dyre Roberts and baby and Mrs. Wm. Gibson spent last Tuesday visiting relatives at Beaumont. L. Eachus has not been so well as went to the Caldwell Sanitarium Saturday for treatment.

Mrs. Wm. Ashcraft visited her daughter Mrs. Nelson in Nampa during the past week.

Dan Gallagher of Bonita was a business visitor in the Bend Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dyre Roberts entertained the Jolly Janes and their husbands Thursday evening at a pot luck dinner. A happy evening was enjoyed by all.

Messrs. Lawrence and Siner Carroll transacted business in Vale Saturday.

Considerable grading and graveling of Bend roads is being done. Ralph Haworth is in charge of the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Lee of Glendale, California, are guests at the Phelan home. Mr. Lee leaves Friday for Asper, Colorado where he has a position with Magoffin company. Mrs. Lee will remain for a longer visit with her parents.

Bend people are busily planning for Thanksgiving, some are entertaining while others are expecting to visit friends and relatives elsewhere.

The Girl Scouts attended a meeting at Nyssa Sunday evening. Mrs. Littlefield gave a very interesting and instructive talk on Scout work and all enjoyed the buffet luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Roerts went to Caldwell Saturday to see their new grandson, born to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Riggs last Wednesday at Caldwell Sanitarium.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Phelan and Mr. and Mrs. Grover Lee were dinner guests at the Robert Lee home in Ontario Sunday.

CCC BOYS OUT FOR BASKETBALL PRACTICE NOW

The boys from the Nyssa CCC camp have started practicing on Saturdays at the high school gymnasium and expect to play considerable basketball this winter. Included in the boys out for practice are several ex-Portland high school stars and the indications are that the local CCC teams will be crack outfits. A total of 15 boys were out last Saturday and more are expected to start practice later.

There is also talk of organization of several teams among the basketball players around Nyssa to play games among themselves, with the CCC teams and probably later in the season, with other towns. The CCC boys are looking for teams to play and have asked that any organization wanting a game to get in touch with John Young at the high school or Mr. Berkley at the camp.

When he put that ring on your finger, did he expect you to be wedded to the wash tub? No, he did not. He hates wash day as much as you do. He hates to think of you bending over the tubs, straining and lifting heavy, wet clothes. He'd be happier and so would you and your children if your home never experienced another wash day. Nor need you, when ROUGH

DRY costs less than your washday supplies.

We'll wash your clothes gently in thick, warm suds of purest soap; rinse them in gallons of rain soft water, and return them to you immaculately clean, with all flat work ironed. Make wash day a play day and save a day by stepping to your phone and telling us when to call for your bundle.
