DESSERT BRIDGE

One of the nicest parties of this season was the dessert bridge given by Mrs. Bert Leinkaemper and Mrs. Leslie McClure at the McClure home last Friday afternoon. Decorations of holly and red tapers were reminiscent of the approaching Christmas time. Five tables of bridge were in play with Mrs. C. L. McCoy winning first prize. Mrs. Dewey Ray, second and Mrs. Ethel Crawford, low.

MONDAY BRIDGE

Mrs. Ted Newell entertained the Monday bridge club this week with Mrs. Herbert Snyder the only guest playing with members. Mrs. Dick Young held high score and Mrs. Farnham Sills low at the close of the afternoon.

SATURDAY BRIDGE

Mrs. Aden Wilson entertained with a nice party Saturday night with two tables of bridge in play. Mrs. Art Servoss won high score for women and Mrs. Nick Rudick, low. Mr. Servoss was high for the men, with Mr. Ernest McCure low. The hostess served a nice lunch at the close of a pleasant evening.

TUESDAY CONTRACT CLUB

Mrs. Bert Leinkaemper entertained the Tuesday Contract club this week. Mrs. Elmo Higginson held high score and Mrs. C. L. McCoy had second high. Bowls of holly were used as decorations carrying out the Christmas motif.

TUESDAY BRIDGE

The Tuesday bridge club met with

Mrs. Dewey Ray this week. Mrs. Herbert Luchs was the only guest. After an evening of cards, Mrs. Ethel Crawford won first prize and Mrs. J. J. Sarazin won second.

WEDNESDAY BRIDGE

Mrs. Ernest McClure was hostess to the Wednesday bridge club this week with Mrs. Art Servoss winning high score. Mrs. Don Todd played with members.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

Claudina and Charlena Crawford were honored Wednesday evening by a birthday dinner by Mrs. Lois Callas. Oswald Forbes was the only other invited guests at the dinner held in the Owyhee Hotel where Mrs. Callas has her apartment. It is said there were 20 candles on the cake.

LEGION AND AUXILIARY PLAN CHRISTMAS PARTY

A meeting of the American Legion and Auxiliary was held on Monday evening, December 2nd at the Parish hall with committees being appointed to arrange for the annual Christmas party for World War veterans and their families. This party will be held at the Parish hall the evening of December 19.

To close, the meeting hostesses Mesdames Cook, Graham and Abbott served an old-fashioned oyster supper. Decorations were in keeping with the Christmas season.

CIVIC CLUB TO MEETS WEDNESDAY

Mrs. C. F. Cox of Ontario will be the principal speaker at the meeting of the Civic club Wednesday, December 18th at which time Mrs. Cox will give a report of the recent district meeting of the Federated Womens Clubs. There will also be a candle lighting service. It has been announced, Mrs. Chas. Paradis is hostess and Mrs. Frank Morgan, chairman.

BEND P. T. A. TO SERVE HOT LUNCHES

Big Bend—A very large number of ladies attended Wade P. T. A. meeting held at the home of Mrs. Case Muntjewerff Friday afternoon. Plans were made for the Christmas entertainment. It was also decided to serve hot lunches, beginning the first of January unless it became extremely cold before then. The program centered on the theme "Adolescence." Several articles were read and discussed. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. John Timmerman with Mrs. Strang and Mrs. Dyer Roberts assistant hostesses.

Mrs. Ray Cartright assisted by Mrs. Abbl entertained the Jolly Thursdays afternoon.

Next Tuesday evening at the regular meeting of Big Bend grange a Christmas party will be held. Each member is requested to bring a gift for the person whose name he drew and put it on the tree. A special Christmas program has been prepared.

P. B. Anderson has sold his ranch to Harvey Bennett of Roswell. Mr. Coleman who rented the place is looking for a new location.

N. S. Phelan transacted business in Vale last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Betts and Fay were business visitors in Caldwell Friday. Miss Fay remained in the city as she has employment there.

A large crowd gathered at Wade school house Thursday evening and were entertained by the home talent minstrel performers. Twenty-seven dollars were taken in and from this sum a treat will be provided for the pupils at Christmas and the remainder used for school purposes. Those in the cast were Claud Eachus, Interlocutor, Mesdames, Betts, Campbell, Pearl Parker, Vera Sparks, Edith Prosser, Fern Hatch, Van de Water and Misses Mary Weir and Fay Betts, Messrs. Ernest Parker, Pond, Coleman, Dean Eachus, Charles Weir, Earl Sparks and Arch Parker; Betty Mae Betts, Iola Parker, Betty Jane Eachus and Phyllis Haworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gibson entertained a group of friends at a bridge party Friday evening. Four tables were played. An elaborate lunch was a fitting climax for a happy social evening.

Charles Ware who spent the past year in the P. B. Anderson home left Tuesday on the Portland Rose for Kalamazoo, Mich., where he will make his future home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Brumbach and Mr. and Mrs. Ora Clark were business visitors at Beulah Dam Saturday.

Mrs. Henry Hatch was a week end guests at the Parker home and on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Parker entertained Emer Parker of Fruitland and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hatch at dinner.
