SHOWER FOR PAULINE WOLFE

Miss Pauline Wolfe, whose marriage to Earl Sager of Caldwell will take place in the near future, was the honor guest at a shower given at the C. Klinkenberg home Saturday night. For entertainment, each guest wrote a list of ten "Don'ts" for the bride-to-be, and also gave a recipe on "How to Keep Your Husband." The highlight of the evening was the entrance of a Tom Thumb bride couple, who marched among the guests to the strains of the "Wedding March" played by Mrs. Howard Foster. Little Jimmy White made a very nice bridegroom and Twilla Louise Crawford was the charming little bride, dressed in a lovely wedding gown and wearing Mrs. White's wedding veil. The small couple presented the honor guests with her many lovely gifts. At the close of the evening refreshments were served the twenty-five guests. Hostesses were Mesdames C. Klinkenberg, D. R. DeGross, C. A. Abbott, Dave Hawkins and Miss

Crete Marie Foster.

When You Get Ready To Have an

Auction

Remember...

The Journal is prepared to handle your Auction Printing and Advertising in the same highly satisfactory manner it has handled this class of work in the past.

Here Is A Suggestion For A Successful Auction

In planning an auction, remember this: All your goods are going to be sold on one day, and on that day depends whether you make or lose perhaps several hundreds of dollars. A few dollars' expenses is nothing compared with the importance of advertising your sale in the right manner.

Get Your

Auction Printing

AT THE JOURNAL OFFICE

Our experience as auction sale printers goes into your job of sale bills. We have printed thousands of auction bills for farmers.

And Then...

Don't forget to advertise your sale in the columns of the Journal where it will be read by the people you wish to reach, farmers like yourself. They are interested in what you have to sell; let them know of your sale by advertising it in the Journal.
