IRONSIDE VISITED BY BLIZZARD AND COLD WEATHER

Ironside—One of the worst storms in many years struck here Wednesday evening. A fierce blizzard raged all that night, all day Thursday and Thursday night, and all of Friday until late in the evening. It then turned colder and the thermometer dropped down to 10 below zero on Friday night. During the blizzard it snowed intermittently perhaps six or eight inches of new snow falling. All side roads are impassible and the snow is drifted many feet deep in many places. Only eight pupils were in attendance at school on Friday obliged to work all Wednesday night owing to the blizzard and road conditions. The highway crew were to keep the road clean between here and Brogan.

The Ironside Mercantile Company with a crew of men and trucks put up ice on Tuesday and Wednesday. Due to the recent snow storm they could not finish. They are getting the ice from the Ed Oakes reservoir.
