JORDAN VALLEY ISOLATED FOR FOUR DAYS THIS WEEK ON ACCOUNT OF STORMS
Jordan Valley—For almost four days Jordan Valley was isolated from the outside world, after last week's storm. Thursday the stage got as far as the Purser Ranch, and because of the blizzard could not come further. Mr. Slade and Ambrose Maher, who was a passenger stayed all night there. The next day Donald Stults brought the mail into town on a sleigh. He came in with the mail on Saturday and Sunday also. This is the first time since Mr. Mumford took the contract that the mail has failed to arrive in a day.
F. J. Palmer of Caldwell, visited some ranchers at Arock last week. Mr. Palmer is a representative of the Idaho State Productive Credit Association. He returned to Caldwell Monday morning.

On Sunday afternoon most of the men in town armed themselves with shovels and went out to where the road was blocked. They shoveled a track clear and by evening the road was open for traffic.
Jack Deary brought eight head of cattle from the Circle Bar. He delivered them to the N-Bar-N Ranch which was purchased by N. C. Lodge. Mr. Lodge bought the Circle Bar cattle and iron and these are some cattle that were missed when the other cattle were delivered.
Mrs. John Horn, who recently went to the railroad to visit her mother, Mrs. Yoeman, has been in Jordan for a few days. She planned to go home last Friday but had to stay on account of dental trouble.
Mr. and Mrs. Hall Parks of Daner gave a community party last Friday night. Several people from town were invited and reported having had a delightful time.
Mr. John Conway principal of the high school is at home for two weeks. Mr. Conway has the mumps and Alice Azcuenaga is teaching for him.
Bob Ross has gone to Caldwell.
Louis Yturri came over from Boise last week. He had to leave his car at Sheaville and come in on the sleigh stage. He left for Nyssa Monday morning.
No picture was shown at the Theatre last Saturday night because the film did not arrive. However it was shown on Sunday and Monday nights.
A dog that was thought to have the rabies ran under Shea's Restaurant last Saturday afternoon and for several hours refused to come out. Finally he came out in the evening and Neil killed him.
A Stockmen's Meeting was held in Jordan on February 10 to discuss the allotment of the range. On February 17 there will be a meeting at which a definite allotment will be made. A government representative of the Grazing District will be in for the meeting.
A truck load of explosives passed thru town last Tuesday. The explosives were sent to the road camp at Rome.
Janet MacKenzie who is attending St. Teresa's Academy at Boise is ill with scarlet fever.
Orville Fretwell injured his arm and hand severely while trying to crank a car. He cut his hand on the license plate and his thumb is broken. Orville is staying in town while Dr. Jones treats his arm.
Hugh Skinner of Caldwell has been visiting his relatives and friends here this past week. Hugh and his family plan to move to Vancouver, B. C. in the near future. He has leased 120 acres of land and two sections of grazing land there. He is planning to ship his work horses and milk cows to Canada.
