JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

"Shipmates Forever" was the theme of the Junior-Senior banquet attended by over seventy-five people last Saturday night at the high school. The study hall was decorated with red, white and blue crepe paper. At the head table was a "Spanish Galleon," to carry out the idea of a ship. Life savers served as place cards and napkin holders. Little sailor caps served as nut cups and the programs were decorated with red silhouettes of two dancing sailors. The menu was as follows: Cream chicken, scalloped corn, sunshine salad, sherbet, mashed potatoes, string beans, hot rolls and cake.

After the banquet Lloyd Wilson as toastmaster, introduced in a very charming manner, the following numbers on the program. Revellie, Edward Boydell; Anchors Aweigh, Isabelle Sarazin; Shipmates Forever, Helen Enebeck; We Saw the Sea, Warren Larsen, Don Boren, Bob Jackson and Frank Pierson; The Ships Log, Mr. Hollenberg; Gobs, Nellie Jean Schweizer, Evelyn Haworth; To Colors, Raymond Holly; I Love to Take Orders from You, Eleanor Pasley; The Light House, Miss Rettle; Songs of the Navy, Juniors; Aloha Oe, a group of Junior Girls; Taps, Edward Boydell. Mrs. John Young was pianist.

The Juniors prepared the banquet and eight Sophomore girls, Alice Nye, Ellen McConnell, Jennie Zesier, Marlene Hollenberg, Martha Godwin, Viola Pullen, Irene Poage and Lucille Thrasher served. They were dressed in white sailor costumes.

The banquet was followed by a dance given by the Freshman class. The gym was decorated to represent a ship with the gang plank and life savers. We're sure this banquet will be remembered as one of the brightest parts of the Senior's life voyage.
