Robert M. Duncan

Republican candidate for Nomination as

State Senator

In asking renomination and reelection as State Senator I can only state that in 1932 I made ten promises, each of which was faithfully kept and enacted into law. All beneficial to this district.

Highway construction and policies will be the main issue before the legislature the next four years. We must complete our highways to get the products of the irrigation projects of Malheur County to the best markets. I pledge myself to work to this end both in session and out. There is danger that all funds will go to the coast. Am confident I can help get our highways. We must all pull together.

Will continue a program of economy and constructive legislation; fight against increased property taxes and experimental legislation. Believe our American system of government is the best form ever devised.

Yours for completed highways, wider markets, a Greater Oregon.

CHARLES W. ELLIS
FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE—

Having served for some months as Circuit Judge of the Ninth Judicial District by appointment, I hereby announce myself a candidate for such office and solicit the nomination for an elective term at the hands of the voters at the Non-partisan Judiciary Primary Election to be held May 15th, 1936. Having had a long experience in general practice, plus my experience on the bench since the latter part of 1934, I know I can pledge an administration of the office which will be fair, economical, sensible, and humane, in accord with the oath. From 1907 to 1935 my residence was in Harney County, and in 1935 it became Malheur County, due to the extra term per year there and the larger volume of court work in Malheur over that in Grant and Harney.
