COUNTY ASSESSOR

Seven years experience as deputy assessor. Previous experience in banking and teaching. If nominated and elected I pledge impartial, uniform valuations of all classes of property, and the selection of competent, experienced office and field assistants. Will not employ any relatives for any position under the supervision of the office.
Upon your assessment depends your contribution to the support of local government—therefore this office is of vital importance—and the election of one who is in no wise connected with any group of interest is of vital importance.
Since I have a family of four children to support, this matter is of much importance to me, and your vote will be greatly appreciated.

The Nyssa nine defeated the Vale boys Friday to the score of 11 to 5. This finishes a successful season for the Nyssa team with only two games being lost and these to Ontario. Several games are scheduled with CCC boys the last week of school.

G. A. A. NEWS

Tuesday was election day for G. A. A. members who will take office next year. The members nominated for president were Flora Mae Wimp, Isabelle Sarazin and Ellen election. The members nominated for vice president were Irene Poage, Viola Pullen and Virginia Miller. Irene Poage winning the election. Those nominated for secretary and treasurer were Joyce Ashcraft, Anna Johnson and Evelyn Haworth. Anna Johnson winning the election.
The new members that were initiated into the GAA were Nancy Lankford, Bonnie Matlock, Hinemoa Cloninger, Clarissa Tillman and Betty Schweizer. Their initiation consisted of painted freckles, make up and short dresses with their hair done up in rags. Also lispng when they talked to any GAA member.

SENIORS

Bruce Fahrney is one of the students who has attended four years of High School here. His home is in Ontario. He has always gone out for football and is one of the lettermen.
For twelve years Curtis Foster has gone to school here. He is very much interested in all kinds of science. He has been in High School plays and taken part in all school activities and is always willing to help.
Alice Hashitani and her golden voice is known by nearly everyone even if she has been here only one and a half years. She is one of the most talented students in the Public Speaking class and is going to be in the Senior Play. She is a very good student and is always helping with some program by singing.
Jake Groot has always gone to school here too. He is one of our good sportsmen and was manager of the basketball team this year when they did so well at LaGrande. He of course is a Letterman. If any help is needed everyone calls on Jake because he is always willing to help with anything.

Bob J.—What is the date, please?
Mrs. Haworth—Never mind the date, the examination is more important.
Bob—Well I wanted to have something right.

Shoemaker—You never think of your footwear do you?
Paul—No, that's the farthest thing from my mind.

Rod Rust—I am indebted to you for all I know.
Mrs. Haworth—Don't mention it, it's a mere trifle.

Waneta G.—Can you keep a secret?
Vivian P. I'll tell the world.

CHARLES W. ELLIS
FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE—
Having served for some months as Circuit Judge of the Ninth Judicial District by appointment, I hereby announce myself a candidate for such office and solicit the nomination for an elective term at the hands of the voters at the Non-partisan Judiciary Primary Election to be held May 15th, 1936. Having had a long experience in general practice, plus my experience on the bench since the latter part of 1934, I know I can pledge an administration of the office which will be fair, economical, sensible, and humane, in accord with the oath. From 1907 to 1935 my residence was in Harney County, and in 1935 it became Malheur County, due to the extra term per year there and the larger volume of court work in Malheur over that in Grant and Harney.
