ANNOUNCEMENT PARTY

At a delightful party Friday night at the Crawford home the announcement of the coming marriage of Miss Claudena Crawford to Mr. Oswald Forbes was made, the ceremony to take place this month. Guests were given a rosebud to which were tied their tally cards and a scroll containing the announcement. Four tables of bridge were in play with Miss Margaret Hunt winning high score prize and Miss Doris Smith second high prize. The hostesses, Miss Charlena Crawford and Mrs. Webster Eldridge served refreshments at the close.

MISS TENSEN HONORED

Miss Margaret Ann Morgan entertained with a card party Tuesday evening honoring Miss Betty Tensen, who was married to Mr. Grant Rinehart today. Miss Tensen was presented with an electric toaster and sandwich toaster. Three tables of cards were in play with Miss Doris Smith winning high score, Miss Mae Kelzer, second high; and Miss Charlena Crawford, low. Guests each received a miniature bridal bouquet as favors, and Miss Tensen was given a wedding cake which she served to the guests.

MCCAMBRIDGE-MOLENAAR

At a pretty ceremony at nine o'clock Saturday morning Miss Margaret Molenaar became the bride of Mr. John Robert McCambridge. Father Looser performed the ceremony in the Blessed Sacrament church. The bride was attended by Miss Hilda Smit of Ontario and Mr. Jake Molenaar was the best man.

Miss Molenaar is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Molenaar, who have a ranch near Ontario. She has been employed in the clerk's office in the county court house in Vale for several years. The groom is the son of Mrs. Mattie McCambridge of Elgin formerly of Vale. He is rodent control foreman in the biological survey at the CCC camp in Nyssa.
